Dear Parishioners,

This Fourth Sunday of Easter has a subtitle just as the Second Sunday of Easter has a subtitle of "Divine Mercy Sunday," and today's Sunday is rightly called "Good Shepherd Sunday," as Jesus stresses His role as Redeemer and our role as the Redeemed, or more simply: His role as Shepherd and our role as sheep/followers. There are two key verbs, action words, in the Gospel this weekend: "hear" and "follow." Listening well and hearing correctly and intently are so important in our technological world that advances from day to day and following the voice of Jesus are crucial if we consider ourselves His followers and want to be counted among the believers. We must submit to Jesus, plain and simple. We must let Him be the Shepherd and take our places as the sheep who hear and follow as He firmly but lovingly invites us. From the time people have heard these words from Jesus Himself, the response has been twofold: some people have willingly and lovingly heard and followed His invitation, and others have unwillingly and arrogantly rejected His invitation, feeling that their submission to Jesus makes them weak, powerless, and inferior. How far from the truth and from spiritual reality are weakness, powerlessness, and inferiority when it comes to having a relationship with Jesus that consists of hearing Him and following Him! People who make themselves their god, with their self-acclaimed power, strength, and superiority, are sadly the weakest, least powerful, and most inferior because they fail to let Jesus be their God yet want to bear the name "Christian," which cannot be in reality. We must take our place as God's creation and let God – Father, Son, and Spirit - be the Creator. We are called to hear and follow and not the other way around. We are God's people - the sheep, the beloved, the saved – of His flock, not our flock.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Acts 13:14, 43-52 | Rev 7:9, 14b-17 | Jn 10:27-30

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

The spiritual riches contained in this line alone are enough to sustain us for a lifetime. First, we rejoice that Jesus, the Good Shepherd, calls us his own. We belong to him who, like the shepherds of bygone days, protects his sheep – capable of little in the way of self-defense – even at the cost of his own life.

Also, among the distinctive marks of Jesus’ sheep are that they hear his voice and follow him. Thus, to be part of Christ’s flock involves not only being known by him, but knowing him and heeding his call. A sheep who has not attuned its ears to the voice of its shepherd is a lost sheep! Although the world’s fertile meadows may look inviting, not to attune our ears to the voice of Christ means exposing ourselves to the dangers of a life apart from God. On the other hand, if we make our pilgrimage of life with him, we abide within the protective confines of his love until the day we follow him into the pastures of eternal life.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Frequently, our free will (something we do not share with sheep) gets in the way of our ability to heed the Shepherd’s voice. For us, his voice is expressed in concrete ways: in his commandments, in the teachings and tradition of his Church, in the Scriptures, in our legitimate superiors, and in prayer. These are the means he uses to mark out the path he wishes us to follow. But this path always involves the cross, and our sheep-ish (pun intended) nature recoils at the sight of suffering. In today’s second reading, however, St. John’s vision offers the key to overcoming our resistance: “For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them.” In other words, Jesus, our Divine Shepherd, is also a lamb who has tread the difficult way of the cross. He is the Lamb of God who offered himself in a sacrifice of perfect obedience to his Father’s will. Thus, we do not embark along the way of obedience and suffering alone; Jesus walks before us to sustain and protect us along the way.

OBSERVE

Find an image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd online and spend 15 minutes praying about what you see. What is the Shepherd’s attitude toward his sheep, and the sheep’s attitude toward their Shepherd? What do we learn from this about our relationship with Christ?
