"Faith in the resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being; the cry for unending life which is a part of the person is indeed answered. God exists: that is the real message of Easter. Anyone who even begins to grasp what this means also knows what it means to be redeemed." Pope Benedict XVI

Dear Parishioners,

As you well know, the readings at Sunday Masses have been carefully chosen and arranged for each week for our benefit and our spiritual growth. The words contained in these readings are divinely inspired, with the words of Jesus Himself in the Gospels that we hear. In the second reading this weekend from the Book of Revelation, the passage ends with God saying "Behold, I make all things new." Naturally, as human beings and not divine beings, we interpret God's work in our world and in our lives differently and individually, yet as members of the Church and sheep of the flock, we are called to see God's work as always beneficial for us, yet sometimes our interpretations don't indicate that, at least not when God's work first takes place in our lives. Yet, my brothers and sisters, this is where our faith becomes operative and that upon which we rely and depend—to see that God makes all things new in our lives, especially when change happens. I realize that I speak about change often; however, it is not yet a year that we as parishioners of St. Hubert's and St. Peter's have had to "change and adapt" as merged parishes. Through the decision of our spiritual leader and shepherd, our Archbishop, God has made all things new as far as our church communities are concerned, and yet we, as the sheep of the flock, and not the shepherds, are called to listen to his voice as the representative of Christ for us in our local Church of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. Complacency, defined as a dependence on routine, a lack of ambition, a false sense of security, and satisfaction with mediocrity, is actually the opposition to Jesus' "making all things new" because Jesus' agenda is always the right one, even if we might not see it from the start, and our relying on faith and hope are what make us true disciples of today. To be unmoving, negative, and complacent are real hindrances to our being people of faith and followers of Jesus. So when we hear the Word of God being proclaimed at Mass in the readings and in the Gospel, let us keep in mind that these readings are not proclaimed just to fill the time or to sound nice, but are meant for us to hear and to embrace, and thus make us truly followers of Jesus, present-day disciples, and just as important, sheep of the flock who strive for and live the love that Jesus calls us to in the Gospel this week.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Acts 14:21-27 | Rev 21:1-5a | Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's Gospel occurs shortly before Jesus gives his Last Supper Discourses in the Gospel of John. Judas has betrayed Jesus, and now the Lord speaks to his inner circle for one of the last times before his arrest. "I will be with you only a little while longer," he says. At these words, I imagine a hush falling over the group. Rattled by Judas' strange actions and alarmed by the Lord announcing his impending departure, the disciples' eyes must have darted about as they held their breath, awaiting Jesus' words. "I give you a new commandment," he says. "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." In a word, Jesus summarizes his teaching: love as God loves. He is using these last moments to exhort his disciples to be as he is. We know it won't be easy – it will involve sacrifice and suffering – but the Holy Spirit is present with us to guide and advocate for us on our journey.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Have you ever experienced a season of suffering and wondered, "Have I done something wrong?" When we meet resistance on the narrow path, it can make us question our choices, ourselves, and sometimes even God. Let today's first reading be a boost of confidence on your journey; remember that your suffering does not imply a misstep. "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," Paul and Barnabas exhort the disciples (and us). It is natural to grow fatigued, especially when we encounter hardships. This is one reason why the Lord desires that we never journey alone. By God's perfect design, humans require companionship, from other humans and from the Creator himself. In the reading from the Book of Revelation, John the Apostle hears a loud voice saying, "God himself will always be with them as their God." Though the road may be peppered with pain, and the trials overwhelming, may we never forget that our God is very near!

PRAY

Today's readings reveal themes of perseverance in faith, radical love, and the stunning reality that the Lord is truly present to us. As we pray with these Scriptures, consider asking yourself: What areas of my life feel distant from the Lord's presence? How can I open these areas up to receive his light and his love? Take time to talk to the Lord in prayer about these things. When you do, make sure you leave space and silence for him to speak.
