HURRICANE PRAYER.....from the Lafourche Gazette

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command.
Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us, and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Dear Parishioners,

In our lives, when we take on a role that is not rightly ours, it usually causes major problems.

A minor children is not supposed to take on the role of a parent. A teacher is not supposed to take on the role of a student. An employee is not supposed to take on the role of employer. In the biblical world, sheep are not supposed to be shepherds. I think you get the picture. So, since Jesus Himself, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, repeatedly tells us in the Gospels that we are the sheep and He is the Good Shepherd, why, as believers and thus, followers, would we want to reverse those roles, especially by not listening to His voice – the voice of the Risen One who gives perfect advice as the Son of God and yet is also our Brother? Listening and embracing and heeding what we hear from Jesus are “keeping His word,” as Jesus says in the Gospel this weekend. Jesus goes on to say, “Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” When we are troubled or afraid, we might want to take things into our own hands and gain more control, thinking that this will help; however, this “role-reversal” results in the opposite, because we push God, Jesus, and/or the Holy Spirit “out of the way” so that we can take over. That’s not a good move on our part at all – we’re not listening, and therefore, not keeping Jesus’ word, which is God the Father’s word, as Jesus points out in today’s Gospel as well. As Jesus was always telling the Apostles to listen to Him closely and carefully, so too, we the apostles of today, are called, for our own good, to listen to Jesus closely and carefully, and not reverse the roles. Jesus is our Redeemer, we are the redeemed, and not the other way around.

Written by THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A quip on a church marquee has stuck with me for years:

If you feel distant from God, guess who moved? In last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus told his disciples that he would be with them "only a little while longer." Of course, we know the full story: Jesus did not abandon his followers. Today we hear of his parting gift to them and to us. Although Jesus would soon return to the Father, he was sending someone to minister to the disciples and to encourage them in their mission: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." Often in our lives, when we feel distant from God, we may wonder if the Lord has departed from us. In these seasons, remember that Jesus – who has never broken a promise – did, indeed, send the Holy Spirit to be with us. Take heart in moments of trial and call upon the Spirit, the Advocate, whose name in Latin means "he who is called to one's side." He will come close, reminding you of the goodness of God and encouraging you on the path to heaven.

REFLECT

Inviting the Holy Spirit to act as our Advocate, how do we reveal the glory of God in our daily activities? As you begin your work, study, or household tasks, offer him your undertakings (and your heart) and ask him to transform the mundane into the sacred.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's second reading narrates St. John the Apostle's vision of the heavenly Jerusalem. John describes the radiant splendor of this place "like that of a precious stone." Though the vision is resplendent, John observes: "The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gave it light, and its lamp was the Lamb." God himself is the source of light which illumines heaven. But he is likewise present among us and his reign is meant to extend on earth as well. With the help of the Holy Spirit, we can, therefore, prepare for heaven while also striving to bring God's glory to earth by living for him each day. So many times we have prayed the words of the Lord's Prayer: "thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." Allow the glory of God to illumine your everyday life. Call upon God's grace and the Holy Spirit to witness to his truth, beauty, and goodness.
