HURRICANE PRAYER.....from the Lafourche Gazette

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us, and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

At rest in Christ

Judith Fontenot Warner

We ask your prayers for the repose of her soul and that her family and friends may be strengthened by their faith and consoled by their hope in eternal life.

Dear parishioners,

I can't believe that August 18 has come and gone and so has my open heart surgery. My mind is still not 100% clear of the effects of the anesthesia and the hospital stay, and that is to be expected. I want to express to all of you, my sincere and deepest appreciation for all of your prayers, rosaries, novena, cards, and gifts for me, beginning well before the surgery and continuing on until now. I have to wait four weeks from the surgery before I can drive, and an exact date on my return to St. Peter's and parish life is still not definite. I hope that my return is sooner rather than later. I'm looking forward to seeing all of you and returning to what was before August 18. Physically I'm fine, emotionally and mentally, it may take a little more time to adjust back to the Reserve setting after being in Baton Rouge for a time. Thank you all again and God bless you. Thank you all also, for adjusting to the revised Mass schedules and the visiting/ substituting priests who have graciously helped out in my absence.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Fr. Ray

Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross

Num 21:4b-9 | Phil 2:6-11 | Jn 3:13-17

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Although God had freed our ancestors in faith from their slavery in Egypt, today we find them grumbling against the Lord as they wander in the desert. Even after we've glimpsed so much of God's goodness, we, too, can begin to grumble in challenging moments of our lives. It's precisely then that we need to cling to faith. After serpents appeared and began to bite those who had grumbled against God, those who had been bitten only had to look at the serpent mounted on a pole and put their faith in God once again to be healed. Similarly, when we find ourselves in the trials of life, we need only look at the cross of Jesus with faith. "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." Amid the storms of our lives, we are called to put our trust in his cross, for through it we are saved and set free.

PRAISE

Today, spend some time thanking and praising God for the gift of the cross and our salvation in Christ. You might wish to use this traditional prayer frequently used during the stations of the cross in Lent: "We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you. Because, by your holy cross, you have redeemed the world."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Paul tells us that God the Father "greatly exalted" Jesus for his humility in embracing the cross, and that ultimately, all creation will join the Father in glorifying Christ. We who know the gift of what Jesus did for us on the cross are called to praise him with our voices and our lives. We praise and glorify Christ first through our example. How might our day-to-day interactions give others a glimpse of the humble and self-emptying love of Jesus? Finally, think of the ways that knowing Christ's love has made a difference in your life. Has it made you more patient? Has it made you more hopeful? Think of ways that you could share this in conversation. Telling others about what God has done for you or the difference that he has made in your life is one way of exalting Christ.
