Religious Education

Religious education folders are on the tables at the main entrance to each church.

COVID-19 Changes

Due to the rising Covid numbers the Diocese of Ogdensburg has implemented an Airborne Infection Disease Exposure Prevention Plan. Please note that anyone coming to the office must wear a mask. Wearing a mask at Mass is not required at this time.

All Souls Celebration and Novena: We will have the commemoration of All Souls on Tuesday evening November 2nd, at St. Ann's at 7PM. The Ladies of St. Ann have volunteered to sponsor this evening and we are happy to have them do so. We will have a special reading of the names of those who have been lost in the last two years since last year we could not have this service due to the pandemic. Please also consider bringing a picture of anyone in your family who you would like remembered in prayer. We will place those pictures on the side altars and on the window sills of the Church to remind us to pray for them. You are also reminded to write the names of the souls you want remembered during the novena of Masses which will be said for the names listed on those envelopes.

Prayer for the Married

God and gracious God you were kind enough to bless our marriage on the day of our wedding, may we kindly ask your constant intercession again throughout the time of our marriage. May we always honor each other after You, may the days, months and years pass with your help. May our families be more blessed because we love each other and may our children know that they were and will always be loved. Be gracious enough Lord to bless those whose marriages have ended. If by divorce grant healing and if by death grant faith deep enough to console. For those about to enter into marriage may the very best of what marriage can be be theirs and may those of us in marriage now be a constant and powerful support. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
