In Prayer

We keep in prayer for the sick and infirm of our parishes. We pray and work for peace in our homes and our world; for unity among all Christians; the victims of oppression, prejudice, violence or hate; for a greater respect for all human life, from conception to natural death; and for all the faithful departed: Gerald Babbie & Shirley McDonald

The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 21st

In today's first reading taken from Jeremian 23:1-6, the word of the Lord is reminding us of our Christians responsibility as shepherds, caretakers, gatekeepers or guardians of our brothers and sisters. Our goal is to encourage and support them in any way we can to reach our destination together. If we do this faithfully and in the spirit of love, the Lord will bless us. But if we fail to lead the people entrusted to us as shepherds, a great punishment awaits us. It is our duty to lead and not to mislead. To bring together and not to scatter them from the flock of our Lord. May the Lord help us with his grace to be faithful in our callings.
