SUNDAY REFLECTION

"Noblesse Oblige"
By: Joshua Kapika

You may have heard this phrase once before. For those who graduated from Maryknoll School you should know very well what this phrase means. "Noblesse Oblige" is an old French motto roughly translated, "To whom much is given, much is expected."

As Catholics, this timeless phrase calls us to an important calling. As baptized members of the body of Christ, we have been given much from God. The countless blessings and gifts we have received over the years and because of this, we can expect that God desires much from us.

In today's gospel Jesus talks about a servant who is given the tasks to look after his master's household. Jesus also shares in the parable two options that this servant could take. He can either do his master's will and look after the house and guard it from destruction or he can ignore his master's will and allow the house to be robbed and destroyed.

This parable is very plain and easy to understand; however, it can be skewed by the many words that Jesus uses to get the point across. The basic lesson is cut and dry. Either we do our master's will and receive our reward or we ignore it and we allow the treasures he has entrusted to us to be ripped out of our grasps.

God has given each Christian two very important gifts. The first is the gift of faith in Jesus Christ; the second is the gift of one or more abilities to be used to unify the body of Christ and to promote the growth of God's kingdom. Because we are entrusted with these gifts we are expected by our Father to use them for the mission of the Church. We often forget our noble responsibility to lead others to Christ and the generous service of our neighbor.

Jesus reminds us this week that we have a responsibility and a duty as baptized members of Christ's Church to help promote the kingdom of God through prayer, service and generosity. When we were baptized, we accepted the responsibility of God's children. If we desire to be with God in heaven, we must accept willing the duty of sharing the inheritance of Christ.

Take some time this week to meditate on the gifts God has given you and how you can use it to give glory to God and help lead others to heaven.

The Month of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Throughout the next parish calendar year which is July—June, each month will have specific focus and dedication. For the month of August we are focusing on the Most Blessed Sacrament.

A few year's ago a Pew Research study found that two thirds of Catholics did not believe in the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. To combat this terrible reality the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) has put together a 3-year long Eucharistic Revival. Many of you may have already heard about it, but to do our part we are taking this entire month of August to spend time pondering the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. This may be a difficult thing to believe, but it is most vital to our spiritual life and to our co-inheritance with Christ.

Take some time this month to visit the Church or spend more time after mass with Christ in Eucharistic Adoration and ask him for a greater understanding of this important mystery.

IMPORTANT NOTICE! FAKE SCAM ALERT!!

It has come to our attention that someone has been texting parishioners claiming to be Fr. Romple Emwalu. It has happened more than once and we want to make sure everyone is aware.

Please be advised that Father would never contact anyone for help or money via text messaging. It is also important to know that no priest in the diocese will ever contact anyone directly for money over the phone.

If you receive a text from anyone claiming to be Fr. Romple or any priest in the diocese, do not reply to the text or offer up any information or assistance; immediately delete the message from your phone and if you can, block the number so that they can't text you again. They may use other numbers so even if you block it, they may still try to contact you. If you are not sure you can always contact our office.
