God Always Answers Our Prayers

A young girl was quite fond of her little doll. One day, not watching where she was going, she tripped and fell. When she got up, she found that her doll was badly damaged. Her brother, who saw all this laughed when he saw the broken doll. “Laugh all you want,” she told him, “but, I am going to pray to God to fix my doll.” “Oh, yeah? He won’t even answer you,” jeered the brother. “I’ll bet he will,” the girl replied with complete conviction.

The girl began to pray, and her brother went away to play.

This went on for seven days as the girl prayed and the brother laughed. Finally, on the eighth day after the doll was broken, the brother looked in on his sister and found her playing with another doll and the broken doll still in pieces lying on a table. “Looks like I won the bet,” he taunted. “God didn’t answer your prayers.” “Oh yes he did,” the girl replied. “God said, ‘No.’”

Today’s readings give us examples on how to pray. Like the story of the little girl, the widow in the gospel was persistent and consistent. While the little girl was not as fortunate as the widow who received a just judgment from the unjust judge, she was not upset when God said he was not going to fix her doll. For when we ask for something for ourselves instead of asking what God wants for us, we too, might hear, no as the answer to our prayers. But, let this not deter us from praying. For times like this, we need to look at the example of Moses where, as long as his arms were outstretched in prayer, the Israelites would win. But when his arms got tired and they started to droop, the Israelites began to lose. Moses needs help from Aaron and Hur to keep up the prayer for God’s help. We too need to realize that we need others to pray for us when our prayers are not enough on their own. Be persistent and consistent in our prayer life, but never forget to listen, not for the answer that we want, but for what God wants for us.

BALTIMORE
CATECHISM #3
LESSON 22 - ON THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Q. 869. What does the word Eucharist strictly mean?

A. The word Eucharist strictly means pleasing, and this Sacrament is so called because it renders us most pleasing to God by the grace it imparts, and it gives us the best means of thanking Him for all His blessings.

Q. 870. What is the Holy Eucharist?

A. The Holy Eucharist is the Sacrament which contains the body and blood, soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ under the appearances of bread and wine.

Q. 871. What do we mean when we say the Sacrament which contains the Body and Blood?

A. When we say the Sacrament which contains the Body and Blood, we mean the Sacrament which is the Body and Blood, for after the Consecration there is no other substance present in the Eucharist.

Q. 872. When is the Holy Eucharist a Sacrament, and when is it a sacrifice?

A. The Holy Eucharist is a Sacrament when we receive it in Holy Communion and when it remains in the Tabernacle of the Altar. It is a sacrifice when it is offered up at Mass by the separate Consecration of the bread and wine, which signifies the separation of Our Lord's blood from His body when He died on the Cross.

Q. 873. When did Christ institute the Holy Eucharist?

A. Christ instituted the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper, the night before He died.

Q. 874. Who were present when our Lord instituted the Holy Eucharist?

A. When Our Lord instituted the Holy Eucharist, the twelve Apostles were present.

Q. 875. How did our Lord institute the Holy Eucharist?

A. Our Lord instituted the Holy Eucharist by taking bread, blessing, breaking, and giving to His Apostles, saying: "Take ye and eat. This is my body"; and then, by taking the cup of wine, blessing and giving it, saying to them: "Drink ye all of this. This is my blood which shall be shed for the remission of sins. Do this for a commemoration of me."

Q. 876. What happened when our Lord said, "This is my body; this is my blood"?

A. When Our Lord said, "This is my body," the substance of the bread was changed into the substance of His body; when He said, "This is my blood," the substance of the wine was changed into the substance of His blood.

Q. 877. How do we prove the Real Presence, that is, that Our Lord is really and truly present in the Holy Eucharist?

A. We prove the Real Presence -- that is, that Our Lord is really and truly present in the Holy Eucharist:

1. By showing that it is possible to change one substance into another;
2. By showing that Christ did change the substance of bread and wine into the substance of His body and blood;
3. By showing that He gave this power also to His Apostles and to the priests of His Church.
