SUNDAY REFLECTION

This Easter, What Is Your Response?

Catholics throughout the entire world will celebrate this holiest of nights, in union with Jesus Christ and with all of our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout the world. We welcome our new members into the Catholic church during this Mass and feel a great spiritual solidarity with them. We pray for them, and with them, as they consecrate their lives to Jesus Christ. It is a very holy and unifying moment of experience to attend the Easter Vigil Mass.

The Easter Vigil Mass always takes place after nightfall. In this moment of time, our church lies in darkness and waiting. The light of Christ has gone out of the world and darkness will have covered the earth where ever the Easter Vigil Mass takes place. A match will be struck in the darkness and the Easter fires will be lit outside of the church, representing Christ's return from the tomb. Jesus Christ is the light that dispels the darkness of our world.

Indeed, the Gospel readings from throughout the season of Lent show Jesus continually reaching out to those people whose lives are in darkness – the Samaritan woman, the blind man, and Lazarus. The Light of the world will not be denied!

There's a saying goes, the deeper the darkness, the greater the light that shines forth. An enduring truth of Easter is how God can and will turn around a dire situation.

The Resurrection of Christ resonates with us on two counts. On the one hand, it is a reminder of God's desire to intervene directly in the course of human history for the good of His people. It is a call to turn to God in the midst of our struggles and difficulties. On the other, the Resurrection is an invitation to live our lives in a way that reflects God's triumph over darkness. We are called to be a people of hope and light and we are tasked with the mission to bring that hope and light to those around us, especially those who are suffering.

response?
