Jesus teaches us that we are called to serve one another. Sacrifice is not a word that many people like to hear. We think I means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and 'facere' = to make. In other words, we make our lies holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal

Next weekend, throughout the Diocese, is ACA Commitment Weekend. Our goal is $19,853 and as your pastor, I ask that each parish household participate in order for our parish to reach its goal. Once our parish surpasses our goal, 100% of the overage is returned to us! By now, you should have received the ACA materials from Bishop Daly, and I ask that you respond with a generous spirit. If you have not contributed in the past, please consider doing so this year, and if you have contributed in the past, please consider the possibility of increasing your contribution this year.

A Note from our Bishop

As we continue to hear stories of abuse and corruption within the Church, I would like to designate this Saturday, September 29, as a day of prayer and fasting throughout Eastern Washington. I chose that date because September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels. Tradition holds up the Archangel Michael in particular as someone whom we should invoke to help us in our fight against evil. I believe that the Pennsylvania Grand Jury report and the removal of Archbishop McCarrick from ministry as well as other accounts of corruption in our Church reveal a diabolical aspect to the present crisis. In the Gospel of Saint Mark, Jesus said that some demonic forces can only be driven out through prayer and fasting.

I therefore encourage all of you to join me in prayer and fasting on September 29 for our Church. May these spiritual works serve as a solid foundation for ongoing renewal.

Asking for the prayers of Our Lady of Lourdes, patroness of our diocese, I remain, In Christ, Bishop Daly

Please join your fellow parishioners for a coffee and donuts following Mass today.
