

PRAYERS BEFORE & AFTER THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS

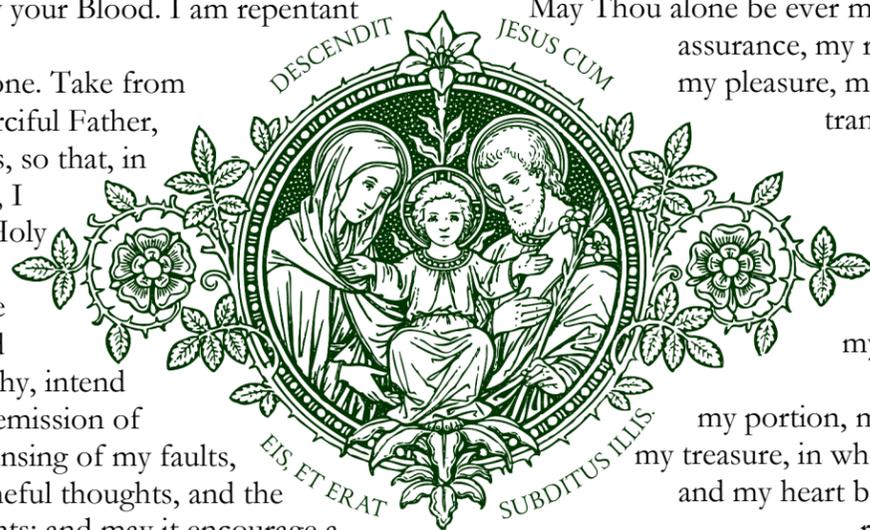

PRAYER OF SAINT AMBROSE BEFORE HOLY MASS:

I draw near, loving Lord Jesus Christ, to the table of your most delightful banquet in fear and trembling, a sinner, presuming not upon my own merits, but trusting rather in your goodness and mercy. I have a heart and body defiled by my many offenses, a mind and tongue over which I have kept no good watch. Therefore, O loving God, O awesome Majesty, I turn in my misery, caught in snares, to you the fountain of mercy, hastening to you for healing, flying to you for protection; and while I do not look forward to having you as Judge, I long to have you as Savior. To you, O Lord, I display my wounds, to you I uncover my shame. I am aware of my many and great sins, for which I fear, but I hope in your mercies, which are without number. Look upon me, then, with eyes of mercy, Lord Jesus Christ, eternal King, God and Man, crucified for mankind. Listen to me, as I place my hope in you, have pity on me, full of miseries and sins, you, who will never cease to let the fountain of compassion flow. Hail, O Saving Victim, offered for me and for the whole human race on the wood of the Cross. Hail, O noble and precious Blood, flowing from the wounds of Jesus Christ, my crucified Lord, and washing away the sins of all the world. Remember, Lord, your creature, whom you redeemed by your Blood. I am repentant of my sins, I desire to put right what I have done. Take from me, therefore, most merciful Father, all my iniquities and sins, so that, in purified mind and body, I may worthily taste the Holy of Holies. And grant that this sacred foretaste of your Body and Blood which I, though unworthy, intend to receive, may be the remission of my sins, the perfect cleansing of my faults, the banishment of shameful thoughts, and the rebirth of right sentiments; and may it encourage a wholesome and effective performance of deeds pleasing to you and be a most firm defense of body and soul against the snares of my enemies. Amen.

PRAYER OF SAINT BONAVENTURE AFTER HOLY MASS:

Pierce, O most Sweet Lord Jesus, my inmost soul with the most joyous and healthful wound of Thy love, with true, serene, and most holy apostolic charity, that my soul may ever languish and melt with love and longing for Thee, that it may yearn for Thee and faint for Thy courts, and long to be dissolved and to be with Thee. Grant that my soul may hunger after Thee, the bread of angels, the refreshment of holy souls, our daily and supersubstantial bread, having all sweetness and savor and every delight of taste; let my heart ever hunger after and feed upon Thee, upon whom the angels desire to look, and may my inmost soul be filled with the sweetness of Thy savor; may it ever thirst after Thee, the fountain of life, the fountain of wisdom and knowledge, the fountain of eternal light, the torrent of pleasure, the richness of the house of God. May it ever compass Thee, seek Thee, find Thee, run to Thee, attain Thee, meditate upon Thee, speak of Thee, and do all things to the praise and glory of Thy name, with humility and discretion, with love and delight, with ease and affection, and with perseverance unto the end.

May Thou alone be ever my hope, my entire assurance, my riches, my delight, my pleasure, my joy, my rest and tranquility, my peace, my sweetness, my fragrance, my sweet savor, my food, my refreshment, my refuge, my help, my wisdom, my portion, my possession and my treasure, in whom may my mind and my heart be fixed and firmly rooted immovably henceforth and forever. Amen.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

A Roman Catholic Church serving Jesus Christ, Located in the Heart of Hillyard, Diocese of Spokane

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME - JULY 21ST, 2019

Musings from your Parish Priest:

“There is need of only one thing.” The sacred writer, King David tells us what it is: living in the presence of the Lord (ps. 15). Abraham begs for this presence: “Sir, please do not go on past your servant” (Gen. 18). With Jesus in her home, Martha is “anxious and worried” because she fails to see the “one thing” that all of her busyness is ordered to: hosting Jesus and enabling her guests to converse with and adore the Lord. Saint Paul attests that God’s stewardship is given to him “to bring to completion for you the word of God.” God chooses “to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery” to those who choose him and find in him the source of their contemplation and activity.

Praised be Jesus Christ! Now and Forever! I thought I could spend this week sharing with you a little about myself; as I’m still getting to know many of you, I thought some of you would enjoy a window into my life. One of the great joys of being a Priest living in Spokane (as apposed to Walla Walla, where I was for the first four years of my priesthood) is being able to be close to my family. Before being ordained a priest I had the strong desire to find a wife who I could love for life and with whom I could raise twelve children. Okay, perhaps not exactly twelve, but as many as God would want to bless us with. At the end of High School I began asking God if He had a different plan for my life, and indeed, there was a very different plan in the works.

Nevertheless, living here in Spokane I am now closer to my twelve nieces and nephews. Earlier this month as we celebrated our Nation’s Independence, all of my siblings, their spouses, their twelve kids, my parents, and I were able to be together. We had a full day at Silverwood (bottom right) and a few other days at my parents house to take family photos (bottom left) and spend lots of fun time together. I especially enjoy not having to change diapers or handle disasters, and as Fruncle David (short for Father-Uncle, as some of my nieces made up), I just get to enjoy them. Family is such a gift, my own family in particular being a great joy for me. In Mary’s Immaculate Heart,

Fr. Andrew

The Missionaries of Charity would like to invite you to join them in a Novena here at St. Patrick's on the 13th of each month beginning in May and continuing until October. This is in commemoration of the apparition of Our Lady of Fatima. The Novena will begin with Mass at 6:00 PM and a rosary procession in the neighborhood will follow and conclude with the Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The DVD for the movie "Unplanned" will be out after August 13. Millie Hynes will put a notice in the bulletin about the viewing of this DVD.

A big thank you to the sisters and their volunteer workers for putting on the Bible Schools. The first was held at St. Charles due to the convenience of their facility and then this past week in Medical Lake. A great deal of work requiring endurance and generosity goes into these events to provide a memorable and faith-building experience for the children.
