Fifth Sunday of Easter

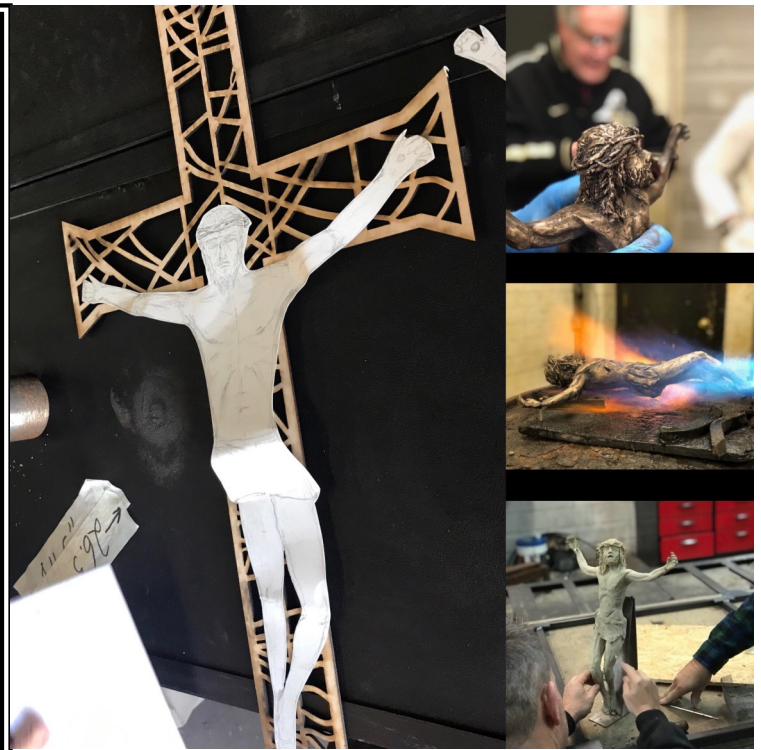

For many non-churchgoers, Easter ended weeks ago. But the Easter season remains with us throughout the weeks until we celebrate the birthday of the church at Pentecost. We have an opportunity for Easter reflection and celebration for several Sundays, so if you feel Easter passed you by, fear not.

Jesus tells us in John's Gospel this Sunday that he is the vine and we are the branches. We gain nourishment from the vine, and by staying firm and strong, we bear much fruit. Whereas Lent was a time of preparation for the Easter mysteries, this season of Easter is a time to offer the spiritual fruits resulting from our prayer, fasting, and penance. Of course, the nourishment that sustained us in Lent continues into Easter and throughout the year.

Don't give up on Easter too soon. Stay connected to the vine and all the other branches that grow from it. They are fellow Christians trying to testify to the kingdom of God by their lives. Allow yourself to get caught up in the celebration of the risen Lord. Be nourished and grow into the wonderful creation God has made.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, excerpt from LPI Art & Media Portal

NEW PROCESSIONAL CROSS

Thanks in part to the generosity of parishioners Mr. & Mrs. Robert and Joan Smith, a new processional cross was designed by local artists Ryan Feeney and Adam Smith and blessed before 5pm Mass on the feast day of SLDM. Together, the bronze corpus and the cross bear the weight of mystery, awe, reverence and wonder. Feel free to take a closer look at the incredible detail and how the Holy Spirit brought this sacred art piece to fruition over a period of two and a half years!

Summer sessions will meet on the following Tuesdays, 6:30-7:30PM in the Merton Room (lower level of the church): May 22, June 19, July 17, August 14. Please contact Sandy Schrader at sschrader@sldmfishers.org or ext 240 if you are interested in learning more about RCIA.

Do you want to make your marriage stronger? Do you want to spend an uninterrupted weekend with your spouse? Why not make a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend and learn more about your wonderful vocation? Marriage Encounter Week-ends in 2018 will be at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, Indianapolis, from October 19-21, and at Mount Saint Francis Centre for Spirituality, New Albany, from August 17-19. Visit www.wmme.org for further information.

Quote from a couple who made a Marriage Encounter Weekend: "This Weekend was the most joyous and most stimulating time of our lives. We have had the chance to see how each of us needs to be loved and to give love."
