THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” - Mt 28:19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Having young children can be such an awakening in faith. I often hear Gospel passages differently now that I’m a father. Today we hear from the Gospel of Matthew to “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always until the end of the age.”

At first glance, I think about evangelization, or spreading the faith to others. It’s only after re-reading that above scripture that I see “behold, I am with you always.” That might not seem like a big deal. For me, that reminds me of fatherhood and raising my children.

I will frequently ask my kids to do certain tasks. It might be something simple, like “Go upstairs and get socks,” or it might be a bit more complex when I say, “go into the living room and apologize for your actions.” But the commonality with the response I get from both those statements, or other requests I make is, “Will you come with me?”

That’s where Jesus understands our humanity. In the Gospel passage, he’s making a direct request to the eleven disciples, but it’s in that request that he answers the first question a child would ask a parent. He says, “Go... Do as I tell you to do... And YES, I will come with you... I’m never going to leave you.”

Are we, as children of God, as confident that He is indeed with us always? Do we hesitate to share good news because we’re searching for the safety of our Father before we speak? God is no less present in our lives than he was in the lives of the 11 disciples gathered in Galilee. He promises to stay with us, too!

So how can we go and make disciples? Let’s start in our own homes... Faith is formed within the 4 walls of our house. We must pray with our children, with our spouses, with our siblings. Let’s start in our homes living the Gospel message. If we get scared, or think we’re incapable of living out this commandment given to us by Jesus, let’s all focus on the last line in today’s Gospel passage: “Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

- Dave Neeson, High School Youth Minister

Fruitful Harvest/Bishops Appeal Drive

There are only four months left in the 2016 - 2018 Fruitful Harvest/Bishops Appeal drive. This biennial drive supports the work of both the universal church and the Lafayette diocese. These funds go a long way in helping us and others grow and nurture our Catholic faith.

If you pledged and still have an outstanding balance you should be receiving reminders from the diocese. If those reminders haven't come or are incorrect, please contact Scott Bernhardt* so we can correct their records.

For each Fruitful Harvest campaign our parish is given a goal that we are expected to reach through donations. This past campaign we came up short of goal and this shortage will need to come out of our operating fund. Many parishioners have made a donation or pledge and we can't thank you enough.

We are still more than $35,000 short. If you haven't made a gift yet to Fruitful Harvest, we ask you to consider a donation now. The campaign runs until August 2018. If you're able to make an additional gift this year, we'd also appreciate that. All donations can be placed in the weekly offertory basket in an envelope marked Fruitful Harvest or dropped off at the parish office or submitted electronically .

Some of your support of Fruitful Harvest goes towards:

- Building the endowment for retired priests.
- Providing funds for seminary students.
- Providing resources such as literature and curriculum for the religious education for all, especially our youth (for both our religious education classes and parish school).
- Supporting Pope Francis with the universal church's outreach and missions around the world.

Your support of Fruitful Harvest is important to our faith as Catholics.
Again, thank you.

*If you have any questions about Fruitful Harvest, please contact Scott Bernhardt at sbernhardt@sldmfishers.org or 317-842-6778 x294 or Fr. Pat or Fr. Travis.

The related inspiring talks by Fr. Michael Gaitely are available throughout the year on the Formed website or app. Our parish code is QDFJ6B.

If you have made the consecration and are interested in the possibility of leading a small group this summer, please contact Rosie Zatkulak at 317-294-5553 or rzatku-lak@sbcglobal.net.

Watch for more opportunities to participate in a small group study this fall.

"33 Days to Morning Glory was the answer to the improved prayer life I was looking for, and it was much more! I learned the role God created for Mary in our lives, and I learned why St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. John Paul II were so on fire with Mary in their lives. For me, Mary's purpose in our lives added another mystery to our faith that I don't fully understand, but I'm choosing to embrace. 33 Days to Morning Glory is a book I'm so glad I read, and it's worth reading again and again." - Gayle Coomes

St. Louis de Montfort and Meijer Partner to Provide Hunger Relief Through Simply Give Food Pantry Donation Program

People in our community continue to struggle every day to pay their bills and put food on their tables. Some are even forced to choose between the two, a heartbreaking decision that no one should have to make. We're pleased to announce that our Sally Burton Food Pantry has joined forces with the Meijer Simply Give hunger relief program this spring to help fill that void for our local families by encouraging customers to purchase $10 Simply Give donation cards, which are then converted into Meijer food-only gift cards and given to our food pantry.

Sally Burton Food Pantry will benefit from donation cards purchased at the Meijer store at 96th St and I-69 Only now through June 17. Cards are located in the Narthex and parish office.

I want to encourage you to help us fulfill our mission of helping feed the hungry by purchasing a food donation card during your next shopping trip. Tell your friends, relatives, neighbors and co-workers because every dollar makes a difference.

And when we give, Meijer gives. For the seventh consecutive year, Meijer will contribute at least $1 million to the 2018 Simply Give program.

We are very excited about this opportunity to serve the hungry.
