April 17, 2022—Easter Sunday

From the Desk of Father Haan

A Time for Explosive New Life

While this may be too nerdy for your taste, the reason we celebrate Easter on this particular date goes back to the 4th Century at the Council of Nicea, when it was declared that the celebration of the resurrection of Christ would take place on the first Sunday following the new full moon, which occurs on or immediately after the vernal or spring equinox. This declaration was intended to unify the festivity of the Church universal. In the Jewish faith, Passover is also determined by the lunar calendar, and of course Our Lord Jesus was celebrating and fulfilling the Old Testament Passover in His Passion. He is the fulfillment of the Paschal lamb, whose blood truly rescues us from sin's slavery.

I know this all seems technical, but this also ensures that we celebrate Easter each year in the Springtime, which is so fitting! After the desert of Lent, with its arid, desolate, and penitential dimensions, we now have a time of explosive and miraculous new life all around us. Flower bulbs are bursting, blossoms are blossoming, and grass is growing. On the Haan family farm, this is the time for newborn lambs, baby calves, and planting the corn and soybean fields. These signs in nature point us to the more profound and consequential supernatural life that is being born in us. Our own Christian rejoicing focuses on the “new life” of the Resurrected Christ, who by passing through the prison bars of death now lives a glorified existence for all eternity. And it's by His new life that we are offered new life. No longer are we imprisoned by our frail, wounded humanity destined for death and decay. We are not only promised a glorified existence with Him in eternity, but this new life is gifted to us through the grace given in the Church's Sacraments and transforms our life in the here and now. We know it's possible: the evidence is found in the lives of the saints throughout history. They lived the words of Saint Paul: “I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me” (Gal 2:19-20).

But our parish community is meant to show “new life,” as well, and there may be no better indicator than at Easter Vigil. At our parish Easter Vigil Mass, eight people are being baptized and fourteen others are being brought into Full Communion in the Catholic Church through their Profession of Faith and the Sacrament of Confirmation. That is twenty-two new Catholics at our parish. Each individual has their own unique story and motives for making the courageous and counter-cultural leap of faith to become Catholic. Five of these candidates were brought to the decision to join the Church due to the witness of their children attending our Catholic School. Some have already had their children baptized, and others are coming in as a whole family at the Easter Vigil. Others have decided to join the Church because our SLDM community has chosen to accompany them through very difficult times in their lives. Ultimately, all of them are becoming Catholic because they have determined that it is the Truth. We rejoice for them and with them, for it is no longer they who live, but Christ who lives in them. This type of explosive spiritual growth at St. Louis de Montfort should not come as a surprise to us: this is what should happen when a parish is filled with individuals and families witnessing to what Christ has done in their life, allowing His grace to transform them.

Everything around us is pointing toward new life... even the lunar cycle! This is my prayer for each of you: that by the blood of the Lamb of God and the grace of His Resurrection, your life may become ever new... that Christ becomes your new life. A happy and blessed Easter season to all of you and your families.

Under the Mercy,
Father Haan

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

PSALM:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

Saint of the Week

St. Anselm of Canterbury left his home in Italy to travel as a young man and ended up at the monastery in Bec, France, which was known for the teachings of its leader, Lanfranc. Anselm rose quickly to become abbot of the community and his writings are now compared in importance to those of St. Augustine.

In 1093 Anselm was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury by William II Rufus, the son and successor of William the Conqueror. However, at the time there was a controversy in Europe over whether kings or the pope had the power to invest bishops. Anselm, who believed only the pope should have the right to invest an ecclesiastical authority, spent much of his time as Archbishop exiled in Rome.

St. Anselm's teaching and works of theology are his most important contribution to the Catholic faith. He is considered of the fathers of scholastic theology and his chief achievement in philosophy was the ontological argument for the existence of God. His work Cur Deus homo? taught that atonement for sins could only be achieved through Christ. He was canonized in 1494 and named a Doctor of the Church in 1720.

Stressed? Discouraged? Lonely? Sad? Don't Suffer Alone. Help Is Available.

STEPHEN MINISTRY Sometimes we fall into a trap where we think it's a sign of weakness to ask for help. So when we're stressed, discouraged, lonely, or sad, we try to keep our struggles hidden and are reluctant to ask for help. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to provide confidential one-to-one care, encouragement, and support to help you through a tough time. Find out more about Stephen Ministry by contacting Deacon Chris at deaconchris@sldmfishers.org or through the Parish office. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to bring God's love and care into your life!
