April 24, 2022—Divine Mercy Sunday

From the Desk of Father Haan

Our Time to Feast

It makes our heads spin to think about how the Triune God is not only eternal but is also outside of time. Every moment is the eternal present to Him. His Divine Providence which lovingly guides human history is explained in its etymology: the Latin pro-videre means to “see ahead” and provide what is needed.

But we, on the other hand, live in the context of time. We know that time is a gift... every day is a gift. We are reminded of this reality when someone dies unexpectedly or “too soon.” To waste time can be sinful under the category of sloth, as it is a neglect of a God-given gift. For us wayfarers who continue our pilgrimage to eternal union with the Triune God, our task is to sanctify the time we have been given. This happens primarily through the Church’s liturgical rhythm. Lent is sanctified through efforts of fasting, penance, and self-denial. The Easter season (through Pentecost) is sanctified by the joy of feasting and rejoicing.

What we celebrate reveals what we love and what we find important. Hence Christmas and Easter are the pinnacles of the year, for the Incarnation of the Son of God and His glorious Resurrection give our lives meaning, purpose, and hope. Marian Feast Days and All Saints Day are monumental on our calendars for good reason. Certain days of the year can also have personal reasons for feasting, like wedding anniversaries and Confirmation saint feast days. I suggest you research your own baptismal anniversary and the anniversary of your First Holy Communion for the sake of celebration.

Our parish has a special cause for feasting this week: Thursday, April 28th is the Feast Day of Saint Louis de Montfort. A devout French priest and a passionate preacher, his witness of holiness and writings on Marian devotion continue to inspire. We not only rejoice that he now abides with God in eternity, but that he perpetually intercedes and guides our parish that bears his name. This is something to celebrate!

I enthusiastically invite each and every one of you to our Thursday evening celebration of our patron and namesake.

5:00 – 6:00	Veneration of a relic of St. Louis de Montfort and Confessions
6:00 – 6:45	Mass
6:45 – 7:30	Rosary Procession
7:30 –	Celebration and dessert pitch-in – Craig Willy Hall
	Sign up to bring a dessert at https://bit.ly/sldmdessert

School Parents – The School will be celebrating as well. They will attend the 8am Mass, then experience a special Eucharistic Procession to the school and through the halls of the school after Mass. No homework Thursday night so you can join in the celebration at the parish.

Let’s sanctify the time we’ve been given. In His Divine Providence, God has provided us a great patron saint. Let’s feast!

Under the Mercy,
Father Haan

P.S.- Each day should be sanctified, but even certain times of the day should be sanctified, too! I particularly think of three ways: (1) Your daily personal prayer, which is specific time dedicated to speaking with Our Lord. (2) The Angelus, which is typically prayed at 6am, noon, and 6pm each day, although during the Easter season the Church instead prays the Regina Caeli until Pentecost. You will also hear it sung after Communion throughout the Easter season Masses. (3) I also think of today’s devotion to Divine Mercy. Jesus revealed that special graces are offered each day at 3pm for those who implore His Mercy, as that is the Great Hour of Mercy during which Jesus died on the Cross. (And as a practical tip: sometimes making calendar appointments or smartphone notifications can help sanctify these times of the day.)

Stressed? Discouraged? Lonely? Sad? Don't Suffer Alone. Help Is Available.

Sometimes we fall into a trap where we think it's a sign of weakness to ask for help. So when we're stressed, discouraged, lonely, or sad, we try to keep our struggles hidden and are reluctant to ask for help. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to provide confidential one-to-one care, encouragement, and support to help you through a tough time. Find out more about Stephen Ministry by contacting Deacon Chris at deaconchris@sldmfishers.org or through the Parish office. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to bring God's love and care into your life!
