Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 20th, 2019

From your pastor...

On January 22nd, 1973 the infamous Supreme Court case Roe vs Wade resulted in the decision to legalize abortion in the United States. For the past 46 years, millions of children in the womb have lost their lives at the hands of their mothers and doctors.

The catechism of the Catholic Church says, "Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains forever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being."

We commemorate the Roe vs Wade decision at the same time we remember and honor Dr. Martin Luther King. Dr. King had a deep respect for human life. He said, "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'what are you doing for others?'" These words, "persistent and urgent," remind us that we are called to always think about others and to do it now.

One of the most important things we can do for another is to protect that person's life. When we love and protect the other person from conception to natural death, we reflect the teaching of Jesus and the legacy of Martin Luther King.

As we celebrate Martin Luther King and commemorate the Roe vs Wade decision, we pray for a greater respect for all human life, especially those who are most vulnerable.

Sincerely,

Rev. Miguel González

Segundo Domingo Ordinario

20 de enero, 2019

De parte de su pastor ...

El 22 de enero de 1973, con el caso infame de la Corte Suprema Roe vs Wade se decidió legalizar el aborto en los Estados Unidos. Durante los últimos 46 años, millones de niños en el útero han perdido la vida a manos de sus madres y médicos.

El catecismo de la Iglesia católica dice: "La vida humana es sagrada porque desde el principio implica la acción creadora de Dios y permanece para siempre en una relación especial con el Creador, que es su único fin. Solo Dios es el Señor de la vida desde el principio hasta el final: nadie puede, bajo ninguna circunstancia, reclamar por sí mismo el derecho directo de destruir a un ser humano inocente".

Conmemoramos la decisión Roe vs Wade al mismo tiempo que recordamos y honramos al Dr. Martin Luther King. El Dr. King tenía un profundo respeto por la vida humana. Dijo: "La pregunta más persistente y urgente de la vida es, '¿qué estás haciendo por los demás?'. Estas palabras, "persistente y urgente", nos recuerdan que estamos llamados a pensar siempre en los demás y hacerlo ahora.

Una de las cosas más importantes que podemos hacer por otro es proteger la vida de esa persona. Cuando amamos y protegemos a la otra persona desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural, reflejamos la enseñanza de Jesús y el legado de Martin Luther King.

Mientras celebramos a Martin Luther King y conmemoramos la decisión de Roe vs Wade, oramos por un mayor respeto por toda la vida humana, especialmente por aquellos que son más vulnerables.

Sinceramente,

Rev. Miguel González
