Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 19th, 2020

From your Pastor…

All of us know the pain of being sick to one degree or another. Some have experienced sickness and pain in the past and all of us will face sickness and pain in the future. Some in our midst battle illness even at this present time. We also may know the pain of watching a loved one suffer from sickness. The reality of illness and disease is a consequence of the Fall. The sin of Adam and Eve introduced the condition whereby our bodies are fragile and ultimately vulnerable to death. Illness reminds us of our mortality. It also reminds us of our need for dependence upon God. One of the hidden blessings of disease is that it can make us more merciful, understanding and kind.

As we enter into the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, we discover Jesus who is performing miracle after miracle for those who are sick. Jesus' heart goes out to those who are ill with tender compassion and powerful healing flowing from His status as God.

Let us pray for all those who are sick so that the Lord may give them strength, care, mercy, love but overall consolation and health.

Sincerely,

Rev. Miguel González

II Domingo Ordinario

Domingo 19, 2020

De parte de su pastor …

Todos sabemos el dolor de estar enfermo de cierta manera u otra. Algunos han experimentado enfermedades y dolor en el pasado y todos enfrentaremos enfermedades y dolor en el futuro. Algunos en nuestro medio luchan contra la enfermedad, incluso en este momento presente. También podemos conocer el dolor de ver a un ser querido sufrir una enfermedad. La realidad de la enfermedad y los padecimientos son una consecuencia de la caída. El pecado de Adán y Eva introdujo la condición por la cual nuestros cuerpos son frágiles y, en última instancia, vulnerables a la muerte.

La enfermedad nos recuerda nuestra mortalidad. También nos recuerda nuestra dependencia en Dios. Una de las bendiciones ocultas de la enfermedad es que puede hacernos más misericordiosos, comprensivos y amables.

Al entrar en la temporada litúrgica del Tiempo Ordinario, descubrimos a Jesús haciendo milagro tras milagro por los enfermos. El corazón compasivo de Jesús está especialmente con aquellos que están enfermos con una poderosa curación que fluye de su condición de Dios.

Oremos por todos los que están enfermos para que el Señor les dé fortaleza, cuidado, misericordia, amor, pero, sobre todo, consuelo y salud en general.

Sinceramente,

Rev. Miguel González
