OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD...

On Saturday, May 31, before the Ordination Mass in Lafayette, I learned that a singular title of honor and distinction would soon be bestowed on me: The Oldest Pastor in the Diocese. Effective July 1, my two elder friends and Pastors in the diocese, Fathers Ted Rothrock and Dennis Goth, retired. That leaves me as The Oldest Pastor in the Diocese. This is not an official title but simply a fact.

Pope Leo and I are currently the same age and we were ordained priests the same year. (I was two weeks earlier, but this is not a competition!) I am considered old for a priest. Leo is considered young for a Pope. I honestly cannot imagine taking on, at age 69, the hardest job in the world, with no retirement age! To quote the presenter at the Priests' Convocation, "The priesthood is a terrible job, but a wonderful vocation." I've heard the same of the Papacy: Lousy job, wonderful vocation. (Fortunately, I'll never know directly!)

I am not the oldest priest serving in the diocese, but the oldest pastor. This gives me no sense of superiority, but sincere respect and admiration for the priests of my age or older who are serving as "Senior Associate Pastors" in the diocese. I don't foresee that ministry for myself anytime soon, but, as we priests say, "That's up to God and the Bishop!"

In any case, without sounding too self-absorbed, I know that I need to do two things, not just for myself but for my continued ability to serve.

I need to take care of myself. As our number of Pastorate priests goes from three to two, I need to take more time for exercise, reflection, and relaxation if I want to be effective as Pastor. Ironically, to do better work, I need to work less.

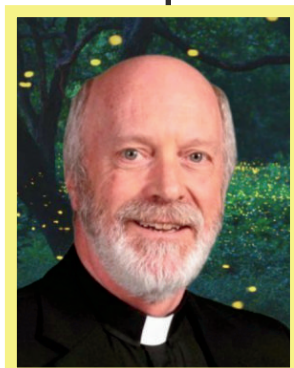

And I need to rely on the wonderful skills, talents, and other resources that surround me, present among our Pastorate clergy, leadership team, staff, volunteers, and parishioners.

It's no secret that I am weak in those two habits. Such is the plight of the perfectionist. I'll need help.

For now, I intend to enjoy my new title and even have a little fun with it. I might even have a trophy made (for myself!) and keep it until it's time to pass it on to my successor as The Oldest Pastor in the Diocese.

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE TOM...

El sábado 31 de mayo, antes de la Misa de Ordenación en Lafayette, me enteré de que pronto me sería otorgado un título singular de honor y distinción: El párroco de mayor edad de la Diócesis. A partir del 1 de julio, mis dos amigos mayores y párrocos de la diócesis, los padres Ted Rothrock y Dennis Goth, se jubilaron. Esto me deja como El párroco de mayor edad de la Diócesis. No es un título oficial, sino simplemente un hecho.

El Papa León y yo tenemos actualmente la misma edad y fuimos ordenados sacerdotes el mismo año. (Yo lo fui dos semanas antes, ¡pero esto no es una competencia!). Se me considera mayor para ser sacerdote. A León se le considera joven para ser Papa. Sinceramente, no puedo imaginarme asumiendo, a los 69 años, el trabajo más difícil del mundo, ¡sin edad de jubilación! Como dijo el presentador de la Convocatoria Sacerdotal: «El sacerdocio es un trabajo terrible, pero una vocación maravillosa». He oído lo mismo del pontificado: un trabajo pésimo, una vocación maravillosa. (¡Afortunadamente, nunca lo sabré directamente!)

No soy el sacerdote de mayor edad en la diócesis, sino el párroco de mayor edad. Esto no me inspira ningún sentimiento de superioridad, sino un sincero respeto y admiración por los sacerdotes de mi edad o mayores que sirven como "Pastores Asociados Principales" en la diócesis. No preveo ese ministerio para mí en un futuro próximo, pero, como decimos los sacerdotes: "¡Eso depende de Dios y del Obispo!"

En cualquier caso, sin sonar demasiado egocéntrico, sé que necesito hacer dos cosas, no solo por mí, sino por mi capacidad para seguir sirviendo.

Necesito cuidarme. A medida que el número de sacerdotes de Pastorado pasa de tres a dos, necesito dedicar más tiempo al ejercicio, la reflexión y la relajación si quiero ser eficaz como párroco. Irónicamente, para trabajar mejor, necesito trabajar menos.

Y necesito confiar en las maravillosas habilidades, talentos y otros recursos que me rodean, presentes entre el clero, el equipo de liderazgo, el personal, los voluntarios y los feligreses de nuestro Pastorado.

No es ningún secreto que soy débil en esos dos hábitos. Así es la difícil situación del perfeccionista. Necesitaré ayuda.

Por ahora, pretendo disfrutar de mi nuevo título e incluso divertirme un poco con él. Quizás incluso me haga un trofeo (¡para mí mismo!) y lo conserve hasta que llegue el momento de cedérselo a mi sucesor como el Párroco de Mayor Edad de la Diócesis.

I've been wondering...

Q: Why do they call this liturgical season "ordinary time?" Is it really that mundane?

A: In the Christian liturgical calendar, the periods of the year that are not part of Advent, Christmas, Lent, or Easter are called Ordinary Time. This doesn't mean "ordinary" in the sense of "routine" or "standard," but rather that the weeks are numbered using ordinal numbers (first, second, third, etc.) The count starts after the end of season of Christmas with the 1st Week in Ordinary Time, followed by the 2nd Week in Ordinary Time and so on. The count gets interrupted by Lent and Easter, but then starts up again where it left off after Pentecost. We are now in the 14th Week of Ordinary Time. The liturgical color for this season is green. Ordinary Time ends when the season of Advent begins, which in 2025 will occur on November 30th.

Me he preguntado...

P: ¿Por qué llaman a este tiempo litúrgico "tiempo ordinario?" ¿Es realmente tan sin chiste?

R: En el calendario litúrgico cristiano, los períodos del año que no forman parte de Adviento, Navidad, Cuaresma ni Pascua se denominan Tiempo Ordinario. Esto no significa "ordinario" en el sentido de "rutinario" o "estándar," sino que las semanas se numeran mediante números ordinales (primera, segunda, tercera, etc.). El conteo comienza tras el fin del tiempo de Navidad con la 1ª semana del Tiempo Ordinario, seguida de la 2ª semana del Tiempo Ordinario y así sucesivamente. El conteo se interrumpe con la Cuaresma y la Pascua, pero luego se reanuda donde se interrumpió después de Pentecostés. Nos encontramos ahora en la 14ª semana del Tiempo Ordinario. El color litúrgico de este tiempo es el verde. El Tiempo Ordinario termina con el inicio del tiempo de Adviento, que en 2025 tendrá lugar el 30 de noviembre.

Summer Seminarists

Have you encountered our summer seminarists around the pastorate yet?

You may have seen them at work at the Pentecost Picnic or helping out at Masses. Lately they've spent a lot of time with the young people at Camp Crux. They will be very busy helping all around our pastorate and beyond through the month of July.

Evan Sondgeroth and Landon McHaffie have just finished their first year at St. John Vianney Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. Evan comes from St. John Vianney parish in Fishers, and Landon hails from Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Carmel. Both young men would love to meet you and are very open to family dinner invitations! Contact your parish office if you'd like to extend such an invitation.

Landon McHaffie

¿Ya se ha topado con nuestros seminaristas de verano en algún rincón del pastorado?

Quizás los haya visto trabajando en el Picnic de Pentecostés o ayudando en las misas. Ultimamente han pasado mucho tiempo con los jóvenes del Campamento Crux. Estarán muy ocupados ayudando en todo el pastorado y más allá hasta fines del mes de julio.

Evan Sondgeroth y Landon McHaffie acaban de terminar su primer año en el Seminario St. John Vianney en St. Paul, Minnesota. Evan proviene de la parroquia St. John Vianney en Fishers, Landon de la iglesia de Our Lady of Mount Carmel en Carmel. A ambos jóvenes ¡les encantaría conocerlos y están muy abiertos a invitaciones a cenar en familia! Contacte la oficina de su parroquia si desea extenderles una invitación.
