WE WELCOME MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF THE WORD

Next weekend, February 2/3, sisters from the Missionary Servants of the Word, will be present at all the Masses. Missionary servants of the Word is a community for young Adults to do a missionary experience to discern their vocation. Our formation house is located in Palmdale California where we are formed for 8 months after those months we make a one year promise to live austerity, chastity and obedience. We basically live like consecrated but we are not fully there yet. Throughout this year of mission we work in different parishes where there is mission and we work by evangelizing through our charisma “evangelizing the laity to evangelize with the laity” through bible courses, retreats whether its children’s—adults, helping out the parish and of course our magazines, Found and Inquietud Nueva, that help us keep evangelizing going. Our community has both brothers and sisters. Please take a few minutes after the Masses to make them feel welcomed!

WE CONGRATULATE AND WELCOME THROUGH THE SACRAMENTS

We welcome through the sacrament of Baptism “Everett Davis Gerald Kersey” son of Doug & Adrienne Kersey who was baptized on Saturday, January 26. We also welcome through the sacrament of Marriage, Nancy Cruz Martinez & Luis Garcia and Mariana Campos and Erick Lopez who were married on Saturday, January 26th. May you be a shining example to all newly married young couples.

REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

When embarking on an important work, task, or life choice, we often indicate so. Presidential candidates declare their candidacy in symbolically significant places. One proposes marriage to another in a meaningful way that is remembered. And special events like birthdays, baptisms, and anniversaries are marked by rituals. Afterward, we settle into routine. Luke does something similar when he begins his gospel. He opens with a four-verse prologue that is one long sentence in Greek! And the Greek he writes is florid, high in style, and reminiscent of classical Greek. After these four verses he descends from that style to the more common Greek.

There are many things to note in this brief opening to the gospel, but it is significant that Luke says he is relying on the eyewitness of others, and thereby indicates that he was not an eyewitness himself. Otherwise, he might have said something like “and my own eyewitness.” But it is clear that he is at least a second-generation Christian, who has looked into this story and told it so the believer Theophilus might have surety. And in fact, the word “surety” concludes the first four-verse sentence in Greek, indicating its importance. By this emphasis on surety, even the modern reader recognizes that the story of Jesus is no mere myth. As Luke says later in Acts, “This was not done in a corner.” The events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection really and truly happened.

But the church is not content to give us only the first four verses of the gospel on this Sunday. The second significant item to note is that we also read about Jesus’ preaching in the synagogue at Nazareth in chapter 4. Luke is intent to show that the Scriptures of old are fulfilled in Jesus. Jesus reads the prophet and proclaims that the message is fulfilled in their midst. The message will be Jesus’ guiding light. He will refer to it again when John the Baptist’s followers come to Jesus and ask if he is the one they should expect. Jesus causes the blind to see and proclaims glad tidings to the poor. In so doing, he is the fulfillment of the hopes and expectations of the prophets, for the Spirit of the Lord is upon him. Living Liturgy—year C

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

St. Patrick's "Adult Sunday School" is beginning a new series on Sunday Jan. 20th at 9:45a.m. in the Conference Room. We will be studying "The Bible and the Sacraments" from St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. Join author, speaker, and vice president Matthew Leonard in this visually stunning series which penetrates the mystery of the sacraments, and reveals them as incredible "powers that come forth" from the Body of Christ". (CCC 1116). We hope to see you there! For any questions please call Patty Rydquist at 503 266-3345.

LIVING THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

How do we imagine the ministry of Jesus? What was it that he did? We know it ultimately ended in his passion, death, and resurrection, but what about his work among the people? Today's gospel reading with Jesus quoting the prophet, gives us an indication as to what occupied the mind and thoughts of Jesus as he performed his ministry. He brings glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, and freedom for the oppressed. This was the message of the prophet and to use a modern term, it is the mission statement of Jesus' ministry. If we want to be his followers, it is up to us to take on this mission statement as well. This ministry is in conformity with the prophets. It animated Jesus himself, and it should animate his followers. Jesus does not talk here about prayer, or doing liturgy, or even going to church. The ministry of Jesus is action in the world. And this action, as indicated by the mission statement, upends the powerful and the privileged. It ultimately leads to Jesus' death. Faced with such a leader, will we be followers as well, undergoing our own paschal mystery? Or are we content to read about his ministry rather than do it, hear about it rather than practice it?
