Easter Sunday of the Resurrection

REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

John 20:1-9;

That first Easter morning must have been a whirlwind of confusion, perplexity, and ultimately joy. According to John's gospel, Mary of Magdala was the first to find the tomb empty. Her reaction was not belief in the resurrection, but something more banal—that somebody had stolen the body. She immediately informs Peter and another disciple of her suspicion. That other disciple is thought to be the Beloved Disciple, aka “the disciple whom Jesus loved.” He is nameless throughout the Gospel of John, and there is not mention of this person in any other gospel. Yet he is portrayed as the model of discipleship, as we see that “he saw and believed,” something not even Peter did upon witnessing the empty tomb. Interestingly, the gospel passage ends on the note that these disciples did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. After all this time with Jesus, and even finding the tomb empty, they still did not understand. Yet, the Beloved Disciple, at least, believed. Such a story gives hope to us who did not travel with Jesus or experience his historical ministry. If we have questions or experience a lack of understanding, we may be assured that the earliest disciples, the followers of Jesus himself, felt the same way even after the resurrection. EASTER MESSAGE FROM FR. ARTURO

Dear St Patrick Parishioners and Friends,
Easter blessings to all of you! The Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ is the foundation of our faith and it is the reason to be strong during this difficult time we are apart. All of us here at St. Patrick Parish we miss you, and we pray that you, your families and loved ones, have a blessed Easter.

With sincere gratitude, I also thank you for your prayers and financial support during this time we are facing together. It is really a blessing for me to receive some cards, phone calls and emails from all of you. Some of you have also left goodies and food in front of my door and it is then I realize that even though we are physically separated we are one community united by generosity, gratitude, and prayer.

Easter brings so many promises of God to all of us, life in Christ is stronger than death, love can overcome hatred, and eternal life in Heaven is our final destination. I pray and offer the holy Eucharist every day that you remain strong and have the patience to overcome anxiety and fear. May the Risen Lord remain in all your hearts, that you may always embrace Him with love and gratitude. May God bless each and every one of you and your loved ones.

MENSAJE DE PASCUA DEL

Estimados feligreses de San Patricio,
¡Bendiciones de Pascua para todos ustedes! La resurrección de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo es el fundamento de nuestra fe y es la razón para ser fuertes durante este momento difícil que estamos separados. Todos los que permanecemos aquí en la Parroquia de San Patricio los extrañamos y oramos para que usted, sus familias y seres queridos tengan una Feliz Pascua.

Con sincera gratitud, también les agradezco sus oraciones y su apoyo económico durante este tiempo que enfrentamos juntos. Es realmente una bendición para mí recibir algunas tarjetas, llamadas telefónicas y correos electrónicos de todos ustedes. Algunos de ustedes también han dejado regalos y comida frente a mi puerta, en esos detalles es cuando me doy cuenta de que, aunque estamos físicamente separados, somos una comunidad unida por la generosidad, la gratitud y la oración.

La Pascua trae tantas promesas de Dios a todos nosotros, la vida en Cristo es más fuerte que la muerte, el amor puede vencer el odio y la vida eterna en el cielo es nuestro destino final. Oro y ofrezco la santa Eucaristía todos los días para que permanezcan fuertes y tengan paciencia para soportar la ansiedad y el miedo. Que el Señor resucitado permanezca en sus corazones, para que siempre lo abracen con amor y gratitud. Que Dios les bendiga a todos y cada uno de ustedes y a sus seres queridos también.

A MESSAGE AND UPDATE FROM ARCHBISHOP SAMPLE

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
Praised be Jesus Christ!

On March 16, 2020, I issued a decree suspending the celebration of public Masses throughout the Archdiocese until April 14, 2020. I did so with a very heavy heart, hoping that this state of affairs would only last a few weeks. It has become clear, however, that the impact of the COVID-19 virus is very far-reaching and will be with us for some time. On March 23, 2020, Oregon's Governor Brown issued an order mandating that state residents remain at home until further notice except for essential work and trips to obtain necessary supplies. On March 31, 2020, the President issued similar guidance for the entire month of April to slow the spread of the pandemic.

In order to be in accord with government directives and protect the people of the Archdiocese, I am therefore extending the suspension of all public Masses in the Archdiocese of Portland until further notice. I am likewise dispensing all of the faithful from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation until further notice. Priests will still be offering Sunday and daily Masses privately and I remind you of the many opportunities now available to participate in livestreamed liturgies at your parishes and at the Cathedral, especially during Holy Week. I will reinstate the public celebration of the Holy Mass at the soonest date possible, following the recommendations of public health and other civil officials.

We must continue to remember that the Holy Eucharist remains the source and summit of the Christian life and pray that this time of fasting from it will bring forth abundant fruit for the Church. May we look forward with greater eagerness to the joy of the resurrection and as always, remember those most afflicted by the present situation. In the mystery of Christ's passion, death and resurrection,

Most Reverend Alexander K. Sample
Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon

UN MENSAJE Y ACTUALIZACIÓN DE MUESTRA DE ARZOBISPO

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, ¡Alabado sea Jesucristo!

El 16 de marzo de 2020, emiti un decreto suspendiendo la celebración de Misas públicas en toda la Arquidiócesis hasta el 14 de abril de 2020. Lo hice con un Corazón muy apesadumbrado, con la esperanza de que esto solo durara unas pocas semanas. Sin embargo, ha quedado claro que el impacto del virus COVID-19 es de gran alcance y estará con nosotros por algún tiempo. El 23 de marzo de 2020, la Gobernadora Brown de Oregon emitió un mandato que ordenaba que los residentes del estado permanecieran en sus hogares hasta nuevo aviso, except para el trabajo esencial y para obtener los suministros necesarios. El 31 de marzo de 2020, el Presidente emitió una guia similar para todo el mes de abril para frenar la propagacion de la pandemia.

Por lo tanto, para estar de acuerdo con las directrices del gobierno y proteger a la gente de la Arquidiócesis, extiendo la suspensión de todas las Misas públicas en la Arquidiócesis de Portland hasta nuevo aviso. Asimismo, estoy dispensando a todos los fieles de la obligación de asistir a Misa lost domingos y días de obligación hasta nuevo aviso. Los sacerdotes seguirán ofreciendo Misas dominicales y diarias en privado y les recuerdo de las muchas oportunidades disponibles ahora para participar en liturgias que son transmitidas en vivo desde sus parroquias y desde la Catedral, especialmente durante la semana Santa. Restableceré la celebración pública de la Santa Misa lo antes posible, siguiendo las recomendaciones de la oficina de salud publica y otros funcionarios civiles.

Debemos continuar recordando que la Sagrada Eucarista sigue siendo la Fuente y la cumbre de la vida Cristiana y orar para que este tiempo de ayuno produzca abundantes frutos para la Iglesia. Esperemos con mayor ansia la alegría de la resurrección y, como siempre, recordemos a los más afectados por la situación actual.

En el misterio de la passion, muerte y resurrección de Cristo,

Reverendísimo Alexander K. Sample
Arquidiócesis de Portland en Oregon
