REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Matt 13: 44-52

Today's reading gives us the third Sunday in a row where we hear from Matthew's chapter on parables. Seven parables of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew appear in chapter 13. The setting is in the house, where Jesus continues to teach his disciples using this rhetorical device, often explaining the allegorical meaning to them. Though in today's reading Jesus asks them a simple question, "Do you understand all these things?" to which the disciples reply, "yes," of course, those at the liturgy today will only hear those words if the longer gospel reading is proclaimed. This particular gospel reading preserves parables not found anywhere else in the New Testament. These parables either come from Matthew's special source or they are his own composition. The reading begins with two parables: the treasure buried in the field, and the pearl of great price. Each is a side of the coin so to speak, with Jesus instructing his disciples that the kingdom of heaven is worth such a price. In other words, once one encounters the kingdom of heaven, a proper response is to reprioritize all else in favor of this. It is worthy selling everything to possess this one thing. The longer gospel reading gives one more parable, but it has another point. Rather than reinforce the lesson of the first two parables, the third-the net cast into the sea which brings in a terrific catch-has another message. The net is returned with good fish, but also with things that are not so good. The latter is thrown away. This then becomes the image for the eschatological judgment, a topic that Matthew addressed quite often. At the judgment, some will be not merely cast aside or "thrown away," but the angels will throw the wicked into the "fiery furnace." As we saw last week, this is a favorite Matthean theme, and it causes some scholars to posit that the parable is a Matthean creation, though certainly canonical Scripture that is both authoritative and inspired. Matthew is sure to tell us there will be a final, definitive judgment and an unfortunate end is possible based on the decisions we have made. Living Liturgy year A

WELCOME

We are delighted that you are visiting our parish. We hope you can worship with us and we welcome you to become registered with our parish. Please contact Debbie in the Parish Office and she'd be happy to help you register or answer any questions you may have.

REOPENING OF DAILY MASSES

Fr. Arturo is now ready to open up daily masses for our Parishioners starting the week of July 28th. The Mass schedule is: Tuesdays ~ 7:00p.m. Spanish

LIVING THE PASCHAL

MYSTERY

The Christian life ought to be a source of joy for us. Some of this joy is reflected in the first two parables. In each, people see whatever they can to take possession of a prized object. This is what it ought to be like for us with respect to the kingdom of heaven. Once we realize what it is, what a prize we have, we joyfully reorient all of our priorities in light of it. We want that one prize above all else. And what's more, we have it! Thus, the source of joy. When animated by Christian joy, we may be shocked at the inevitable suffering and death that Christ experiences. There is evil in the world and this evil impinges on our own reality. It certainly did for Jesus. But that terrible experience is not the end. Joy and love triumph as new life spring forth from humiliation and death. This new life itself is a cause of joy. And so as Christians our joy is foundation. It should be a hallmark of our witness in the world. It is an essential element of our living the paschal mystery.

SACRAMENT PREP POLICY

In compliance with Archdiocesan policy and recommendations for the preparation and reception of the Sacraments, St. Patrick requires that any candidate receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation, First Reconciliation and First Eucharist must be actively involved in age appropriate Religious Education for a minimum of 1 year prior to beginning preparation for the Sacraments. The candidates must have regular attendance in our programs. Additionally, it will be expected that each candidate will continue to be involved in age appropriate classes and regularly attend weekend Mass during the period of Preparation for the Sacrament.

SACRAMENTS

Adult Baptism

Adults seeking baptism are expected to participate in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). RCIA begins in the fall with the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation in the Spring (Easter). For information call the Office 503-266-9411

Infant Baptisms:

Registered parishioners are expected to complete a Baptismal Preparation program prior to scheduling a baptism. Baptismal preparation programs are offered 3 times a year.

Marriage Policy:

Please contact the Pastor at least six months prior to the wedding to ensure adequate time for these preparations.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FOR 2020 – 2021

Due to Covid-19, our religious education program for the 2020 – 2021 year may look a little different. However, we are committed to providing our families and youth with age appropriate materials and resources that will meet the needs of our youth and families during and after this restricted time. As we plan for the future, please know we are committed to teach the truths of the Catholic faith while drawing our students into a loving, personal, and joyful relationship with Jesus Christ. We are here to inspire and foster a desire in our youth to live a Christ-centered life by participating in the sacramental life of the Church and living out the Gospel in their daily lives. For more information or if you have questions, please contact Heriberto Aguilar (Hispanic Minister), Jody Patershall (Elementary English Program), or Frances Parker (Junior/High School Program).

REGISTRATION FOR OUR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Religious education registration forms are now available for pick-up in front of the church, online by visiting our St. Patrick website (stpatcanby.org), or by requesting registration forms through email attachment. Early Bird registration will run through Sunday, August 16th.

FIRST EUCHARIST

We would like to congratulate Aliah Zamora upon her reception of First Holy Communion on Sunday, July 26th. May Jesus nourish her for her faith journey, and fill her with wisdom, peace and joy as she continues to receive him in the Eucharist.

We ask for the prayers of our community for Aliah, and all our First Communion candidates, as they receive Jesus for the first time in the Sacrament of Eucharist.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Due to the ongoing restrictions of Covid-19, we will begin to schedule youth from our 2019-2020 confirmation class to receive the sacrament of confirmation at any of our weekend masses. We are only scheduling the youth that have completed all the requirements and turned in their assignments. Please contact Frances Parker at 503-263-1288 or fparker@canby.com for more information, to schedule confirmation or to verify if we have received all the requirements.

RECEIVING THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION THIS WEEKEND

We would like to congratulate and recognize Katie Anderson and Kate Williams as they are the first to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation from our 2019 – 2020 program. Katie Anderson, with her sponsor Jane Pauly, received the sacrament on Saturday, July 25th at the 5:00 PM Mass. Kate Williams, with her sponsor Joyce Wurdinger, received the sacrament on Sunday, July 26th at the 8:30 AM Mass. Please keep these young ladies, their sponsors and families in your prayers.
