REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Matt 16: 13-20

The story in today's gospel reading from Matthew is a favorite in Catholic Protestant dialogue or even debates on the role of Peter and the development of the papacy. But the papacy is a long way from the setting of this particular story. Instead, if we read it on its terms, we see that Simon Bar-Jonah confesses Jesus as the Christ. He recognizes Jesus for who he is, and Jesus responds by saying this insight was given to him by the heavenly Father. Jesus then names him "Peter," a Greek term meaning "Rock." Prior to this, no person in recorded history had been named "Rock." It's as though Jesus named someone "Window." For us today, who are so familiar with the name "Peter," it sounds standard. But in antiquity, this nickname would have sounded odd. And for that reason, most scholars believe the name "Peter" goes back to the historical Jesus. Jesus then says that on this "rock he will build his church." The term "church" appears in the gospels only in Matthew, and only here and in Matthew 18:17. Historically, churches developed later, so it seems anachronistic for Matthew to use the term during the historical ministry of Jesus. It's partially for that reason that the phrase is thought to be a Matthean addition. Even so, Matthew is informing, or reminding, his audience that Peter was a spokesperson for the group. Confessed Jesus as Christ, but even this was not due to his insight but from a gift of the Father. As Catholics, we read Scripture holistically, not cherry-picking verses from here and there, and then applying them in a context divorced from their own. A Catholic approach to Scripture seeks to understand the context in which the book, letter or verse was written; the intent of the author, as much as possible; and how it corresponds to other Scripture. If we are looking for Scripture verses to use in theological debate with other Christians, we are playing the wrong game. Living Liturgy year A

LIVING THE WORD THIS WEEK

WELCOME BACK!

We will back Fr. Arturo from his time away! Please take a few minutes after the Masses to welcome him back home!

SYMPATHY

Please remember in your prayers +William Gordan Maurer, grandson of Nora Lee Lane. Remember Lord, those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. May these, and all who sleep in Christ, find in Your presence light, happiness and peace.

CONGRATULATIONS

We would like to congratulate Giovanni Rodriguez, Yandel Rodriguez, Juan and Daniel Castrejon who will receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist at the Masses this weekend. We would also like to congratulate Cecilia Rodriguez, Haven Tamimi and Martha Valeria Perez Cabrera who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Masses this weekend. Please keep Giovanni, Cecilia, Yandel, Haven, Juan, Daniel and Martha and their families in your prayers.

WE WELCOME THROUGH BAPTISM

We welcome through Baptism "William Jay McBee" the son of Joshua and Katherine McBee who was baptized on Sunday, August 23.

STAYING IN TOUCH WITH ST. PATRICK

We admit, right now there seems to be so much going on at St. Patrick. With daily and weekend masses, bulletin announcements and the urgent messages that we feel our parishioners need to know-right away, "FLOCKNOTE" is the best way to stay in touch. Signing up is super easy. You can text Blessed 18 to 84576 or visit flock-note.com/stpatcanby. When you sign up you can choose the areas that you would like notifications on for example "daily masses, Religious Education Classes both in English and Spanish, the many different parish groups that make up St. Patrick. This is a GREAT way to stay in touch with the latest information and last minute changes that can happen. Debbie in the Parish Office can help you sign up if you would like her assistance.

SPECIAL BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

If you have an article for our Sunday Bulletins for the weeks of August 30 & September 6th, please email your items to Nancy Patton at pattbrat@aol.com.

THANK YOU!

A special thanks to Ellen Hannan for donating the proceeds from her yard sale to the food bank. Her donation will go to feed many in our community. Thank you, Ellen!

LIVE STREAMED MASSES

We thought maybe some directions and clarification on how to get connected to view Masses on line would be helpful!

The simplest way to do this would be to *go to our website: www.stpatcanby.org.

* On the top right corner of the page, you will see the letter "F". Click on the "F" and it will take you directly to St. Patrick's Facebook page.

*You will have to wait a few minutes before the start of Mass in order for the feed to get started. Once you see the feed started, you can begin to watch the Mass.

Remember, the two Masses on Sunday that we have our Masses live-streamed are 10:30a.m.

MISAS TRANSMITIDAS EN VIVO

Pensamos que algunas direcciones y aclaraciones sobre cómo conectarse para ver la misa en línea serían útiles! La forma más sencilla de hacer esto sería:

*Ir a nuestro sitio web: www.stpatcanby.org.

* En la esquina superior derecha de la página, verá la letra "F". Haga clic en la "F" y le llevará directamente a la página de Facebook de St. Patrick.

*Tendrás que esperar unos minutos antes del inicio de la Misa para que el alimentador comience. Una vez que veas que el alimentador empezó, puedes comenzar a ver la Misa.

Recuerden, las dos misas del domingo que tenemos en vivo son a las 10:30 a.m. en (Inglés) y 12:30p.m. en (Español). Muchas gracias.

SACRAMENT PREP POLICY

In compliance with Archdiocesan policy and recommendations for the preparation and reception of the Sacraments, St. Patrick requires that any candidate receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation, First Reconciliation and First Eucharist must be actively involved in age appropriate Religious Education for a minimum of 1 year prior to beginning preparation for the Sacraments. The candidates must have regular attendance in our programs. Additionally, it will be expected that each candidate will continue to be involved in age appropriate classes and regularly attend weekend Mass during the period of Preparation for the Sacrament.

RECEIVING THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION THIS WEEKEND

We would like to congratulate and recognize Cecilia Rodriguez, Haven Tamimi, and Valeria Perez as they received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Cecilia Rodriguez with her sponsor Anita Rodriguez received the sacrament on Saturday, August 22nd at the 5:00 PM Mass. Haven Tamimi with her sponsor Cortney Tamami received the sacrament on Sunday, August 23rd at the 10:30 AM Mass. Valeria Perez with her sponsor Nancy Avila received the sacrament on Sunday, August 23rd at the 12:30 PM Mass. Please keep Cecilia, Haven, and Valeria, their sponsors and families in your prayers.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Due to the ongoing restrictions of Covid-19, we have begun to schedule youth from our 2019 – 2020 confirmation class to receive the sacrament of confirmation at any of our weekend masses. We are only scheduling the youth that have completed all the requirements and turned in their assignments. Please contact Frances Parker at 503-263-1288 or fparker@canby.com for more information, to schedule confirmation, or to verify if we have received all the requirements.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FOR 2020 – 2021

Due to Covid-19, our religious education program for the 2020 – 2021 year may look a little different. However, we are committed to providing our families and youth with age appropriate materials and resources that will meet the needs of our youth and families during and after this restricted time. As we plan for the future, please know we are committed to teach the truths of the Catholic faith while drawing our students into a loving, personal, and joyful relationship with Jesus Christ. We are here to inspire and foster a desire in our youth to live a Christ-centered life by participating in the sacramental life of the Church and living out the Gospel in their daily lives. For more information or if you have questions, please contact Heriberto Aguilar (Hispanic Minister), Jody Patershall (Elementary English Program), or Frances Parker (Junior/High School Program).

WEDNESDAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

There will be a Wednesday religious education program this year! We are preparing for distance learning as we begin the program year, as well as in-person class time. Even though our program might look a little different, we are committed to providing our youth and families with a learning opportunity that will introduce or deepen a relationship with Jesus Christ. We encourage our families to sign-up for Flocknote by texting Blessed18 to 84576 to stay updated with our Wednesday RE program. Once you sign-up for Flocknote, be sure to select Youth Ministry and your child (ren)'s specific class on Wednesday evening.

Sunday Elementary ~ RE

SUNDAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

St. Patrick's is preparing for our upcoming religious education classes! Registration forms are available now. Be sure to register before August 16th to receive a discount on fees!

The Sunday Elementary Program would like to invite all families with children, ages 3 years through the 5th grade, to register for the 2020-2021 program year. The program will begin September 20th. Please note, due to the new Mass schedule, classes will now run from 9:15 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

We are excited to offer both in class and distance learning for all youth. We are taking all the necessary precautions and following the guidelines set forth by the Archdiocese of Portland to ensure the safety of all our students and volunteers. We will begin the year with distance learning for all children. As restrictions begin to lift, we will shift from online to in-person learning in the classroom.

Ages 3 years through Kindergarten will be using the same curriculum as last year; however, we will now have digital copies that both parents and catechists can help children learn the basic truths of our faith. First through fifth grade students will be using a new curriculum, Spirit of Truth, by the Sophia Institute. We are excited to use Spirit of Truth because it emphasizes the importance of your child's personal spiritual journey. It is designed to help kids internalize their Faith and apply it to their own lived experience. Interactive lessons will engage students each week as they reflect and learn about sacred art, here stories of the saints, play games, role-play, and be drawn into critical thinking questions to capture their attention.

FIRST COMMUNION

Congratulations to Yandel Rodriguez and Giovanni Rodriguez who will receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist this weekend. We pray that his reception of Holy Communion will be the first step towards a lifelong love for the Eucharist. May the Spiritual food he receives give him strength and nourishment and may God's grace fill his heart with love.
