REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Matthew 22:: 1-14

Now we come to the third of three parables in three weeks. After learning about the two sons and the evil tenants, we now hear about the royal wedding feast. This parable, like the one from last week, is addressed to the chief priests and elders. Care should be exercised to remember that Jesus is not talking about all Jews; he speaks to the leaders in a particular time and place. And the parable he speaks to them is harsh, especially the end. If we choose the shorter gospel reading, the last four verses will not be read and it might be easier for the preacher if they weren't! Many problematic issues are avoided by simply reading the shorter version of this gospel. In the shorter reading, the parable is fairly straightforward. The king sets a banquet, but the guests do not come. The first servants are ignored, as are the second set. Indeed, the invitees kill the messengers! The king enacts his vengeance on these people, killing them and burning their city before extending the invitation to others. This parable, then, is read like last week's in Christian-Jewish terms. The people whom God has chosen ignored his invitation both when the prophets announced it and when the apostles were sent. We recall that Matthew is writing at a time after the destruction of Jerusalem. The original audience of Matthew's gospel did not need much imagination to get the point. The last four verses conclude on a troubling note. When the new guests arrive, the king sees someone not properly dressed. For that he is bound and thrown out. Again, we might wonder what kind of king this is! But the image of a king in Jesus' time certainly had the power of life and death over his subjects. It makes for an apt image of God, even if the behaviors of the king in this particular parable sound off-putting. We recall earlier Matthean parables like the weeds and wheat. Matthew knows the church is a collection of the good and bad. Some quite literally need to be tossed out. An invitation does not necessarily mean attendance, and attendance does not necessarily mean celebration. There are expectations that need to be met. "Many are invited but few are chosen is a sober reminder for us all. Living Liturgy year A

LIVING THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

In a story filled with such violence as we have today, it might be easy to forget we are dealing with a merciful God! God calls a people to himself and desires that they come to him. The destruction of the city of Jerusalem with its temple was interpreted at the time by Christians as God's judgment on Judah. A violent world saw stories of violence. Though we may wish to minimize the violence, unfortunately it has been part of human history from the beginning and continues to this day. It might be difficult to strip away the violent imagery and focus instead on the kernel underneath it all. Matthew's church has the wisdom and experience of decades since the death and resurrection of Jesus. It has learned that there are some in the church who do not belong, as indicated in several parables. Sadly, our modern experience reflects this too. Simply being in the church does not make one holy, God's chosen, or a paragon of virtue. There are weeds within the wheat. Only God has the authority to definitively and eternally expel such a person. The sobering reminder that "many are invited but few are chosen" should cause us to pause, reflect, and reexamine our lives.

WEDNESDAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM HAS BEGUN

Our Wednesday religious education program has begun, but there is still time to register. Join us this Wednesday, September 30th from 7:00 – 8:30 PM. What you need you need to know about our program this year. We will meet in person following the guidelines of the Archdiocese of Portland and the CDC, until our class size does not permit us to maintain the proper social distance. We will take temperatures as you enter the building, social distancing will be monitored, all participants will wear masks, and all areas will be sanitized after each use. We ask that you stay home if you are not feeling well or have any of the Covid-19 symptoms. We respect each family's decision to participate in our program in-person or through distance learning. We want to be flexible with our program and resources so that our families and youth can continue to grow in their faith. Please contact Frances Parker at 503-263-1288 or fparker@canby.com for information, registrations or to discuss options for religious education.

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM 2020 - 2021

We are excited to announce that our confirmation youth will be participating in the Alpha Youth program for the first half of the year. This program is offered through the Archdiocese of Portland in partnership with Parrhesia Catholic. Our participation will cause a change in schedule, confirmation class will now meet on Sunday evening from 7:00 – 8:30 PM instead of Wednesday evening (same time).

Our next confirmation class for those that are in their second year of the program will be Sunday, October 11th in the auditorium of the parish center.

Remember, everyone needs to wear a mask and maintain social distancing at all times if you are attending the class in person. If you would like to participate via Zoom, please contact Frances Parker for more information. Please stay home if you do not feel well or have any of the Covid-19 symptoms. If you have questions about confirmation or would like to participate in distance learning, please contact Frances Parker at 503-263-1288 or fparker@canby.com.
