REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Matthew 25: 14-30

The parable in today's gospel follows immediately upon the parable we read last week. Both the parable of the wise and foolish virgins and the parable of the talents speak to the coming of the Lord on the last day. In each case there is a delay or an intervening time during which different characters in the story respond and react differently. In today's story, the master entrusts money with three servants according to their ability. One receives five, another two and the last, one. The first two invest the funds in a variety of activities and they both double the money entrusted to them. The third, however, buries the sole talent in the ground, depriving the master of the simple interest it would have earned if it had been deposited in a bank. Not surprisingly, the master is furious with the third servant. Jesus concludes the parable with some folk wisdom, reflecting common attitudes of the day, with a phrase akin to "the rich get richer and poor get poorer." It would be a mistake to read this parable as somehow endorsing a political and economic system whereby the wealthy receive a majority of benefits while the poor suffer. Instead, that economic condition, which characterized the time of Jesus, becomes the folk wisdom reinforced by the parable. The lesson from the parable has to do with the intervening time between the resurrection and the coming of Christ. How will the disciples invest their own talents in service of the master? One must risk oneself to earn a reward. The investment of talent, skills, and gifts will generate returns. The miserable disciple who invests nothing of himself, but instead uses the time prior to the coming of the Lord merely to loaf around, will be punished. He is hardly worthy of the name servant. Interestingly, the reward for the first two is the same, "Come, share your master's joy." But the third is exiled. Like last week's parable, and many before, today's story is an echo of the Matthean church, which had both weeds and wheat in its midst. There were industrious Christians, investing their talents and skills in the service of the Lord, and there were freeloaders, who risked nothing of themselves for God. It would be a mistake to read this parable in economic terms, endorsing a particular system or class of people. Instead, this parable is speaking to life in the church prior to the coming of Jesus: Am I a disciple who invests myself, my skills, and my talents for God? Or am I content to let others do that work? To those who invest themselves, Jesus says, "come, share your master's joy." Living Liturgy year A

CANBY KC CHARITIES CRAB DINNER—SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2021

GREAT NEWS!

The 24th Annual Crab Dinner will still happen this year! We are not about to let a little virus keep us from doing charitable works. We have had to make some changes because of State guidelines and restrictions. With the heavy economic burden on our generous business community, the Auction portion will not be taking place.

Yet, we strongly believe that we can safely serve a great take out crab or chicken dinner, with all proceeds going to local charities. You will receive a great meal, just like in the past, which you can take home and enjoy with family and friends.

Tickets will be available on our website starting Monday, November 16th. We hope to sell tickets in the Vestibule of the Church, starting the 1st weekend in December.

Go to the Website link below to:

- *Purchase Dinner Tickets
- *Donate to our Special Appeal (Paddle Raiser for a family of 6 that lost everything in the Santiam Canyon Wildfire.
- *Purchase individual or multiple raffle tickets for 3 great prizes.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Knights of Columbus are pleased to recognize the following members of our parish and their commitment to our church community:

Knight of the Month: Greg Perez – Greg was instrumental in obtaining American Flags to place on Waite Park. The city of Canby is working with Greg to have them displayed. Greg is also very active in planning Knight's events including the annual Crab Food.

Lady of the Month - Edy Pavlicek – Edy has been a member of St Patricks for over 30 years and has been very active in women's ministry and various church events. Edy has volunteered countless hours in this ministry.

Family of the Month – Deacon Jerry and Maureen Giger – Deacon Jerry just celebrated his 13 anniversary as Deacon. Maureen is a reader at Mass. Together they are instrumental in many aspects of St Patricks parish ministry including RCIA. We are truly blessed to have the Giger's in our parish. “

“In order to perform an act of worship acceptable to the Lord, we have to recognize that each person, even the poorest and most contemptible, is made in the image of God.”

—Pope Francis, Fourth World Day of the Poor,

THANK YOU

A very special thank you to the following parishioners who graciously volunteered last weekend as greeters at the Masses: John Fontana, Barbara Thomas, Verlene Patton, Mike & Nancy Patton, Debbie Newbury, Maria Zuriaga and Consuelo Malagon We would love to have your help. Trust me when I say, it is very rewarding and you get a chance to say hello to your parish family as they arrive to church. If you would like to volunteer to be greeters at one of our weekend Masses, please contact either Debbie (503-263-1286) or Heriberto (503-263-1292) and they would be happy to have your assistance!

CHURCH CLEANERS NEEDED!

We are still in desperate need of church cleaners for the first Saturday of each month. They begin at 8:00am in the morning and it normally takes about an hour. What a great way to volunteer than to help keep our church looking beautiful. If you would like to donate an hour of your time or have any questions, please contact Verlene Patton at 503-481-3619 or wvpatton@canby.com.

PARISHIONER IN NEED OF HELP

A long time elderly parishioner is in need of a part time caregiver weekdays for a few hours in the late afternoon and early evening. If you can help or if you know of someone who can, please call 503-307-4063 and ask for "Tom" and he will give you all the details! Thank you!

LIVING THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

Life in a community can be a gift. We join others who share a common purpose. We combine effort to achieve a common goal. But in these cases, much like "group work" assigned to schoolchildren, there can be freeloaders who live off the largesse of others' efforts while contributing little to no effort of their own. The parable today reminds us that there will come a time when God will take stock of each person's efforts. This is not our work to do, but God's.

When we hear this parable and others like it, we can be moved to action, investing ourselves more fully in the Christian life. And for the Gospel of Matthew that means service of others, especially the less fortunate. May this gospel motivate us to continue serving without counting the cost, investing fully of ourselves and our talents. There will be an accounting, and when there is, we want to hear the words, "Come, share your master's joy." Living Liturgy year A

SACRAMENT PREP POLICY

In compliance with Archdiocesan policy and recommendations for the preparation and reception of the Sacraments, St. Patrick requires that any candidate receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation, First Reconciliation and First Eucharist must be actively involved in age appropriate Religious Education for a minimum of 1 year prior to beginning preparation for the Sacraments. The candidates must have regular attendance in our programs. Additionally, it will be expected that each candidate will continue to be involved in age appropriate classes and regularly attend weekend Mass during the period of Preparation for the Sacrament.

CONFIRMATION RETREAT

Our Confirmation class will have a half-day retreat next Saturday, November 21st from 9:30 AM to 1:00 PM. The retreat will take place in the auditorium of the parish center and all participants will need to wear a mask. Please contact Frances Parker at fparker@canby.com or 503-263-1288 for more information or to ask questions.

2020 ST. PATRICK GIVING TREE

You will not see a Giving Tree in the parish center or vestibule of the church this year, but our desire and commitment to serve and help members of our community remains. With the restrictions Covid-19 has placed on us, and our desire to not spread germs, we will try another approach to providing much needed help during the Christmas season. If you would like to help with the Giving Tree this year, we are asking for donations of gift cards or a cash donation to purchase gift cards. In the past, most of the families in need have shopped locally at Thriftway for food, Fred Meyer, Walmart, and Target as they offer a variety of items. Of course, when we think of gift cards, we know there are many different options. Often, our families will request basic necessities such as laundry soap, personal hygiene items, and general household items such as dishes, crockpots and bedding. Because we are not providing our families with purchased and wrapped gifts, we would like to distribute the gift cards before the holiday shopping begins at the end of November. We ask that you return your gift card or cash donation in an envelope clearly marked "Giving Tree 2020" by Sunday, November 22nd. You are welcome to put your clearly marked donation in the offertory basket at church, the parish office mail slot next to the office front door, mailing your donation to the parish office, or dropping it by the office in person. Any cash donations that are not used to purchase gift cards for the Giving Tree this year will be donated to our St. Vincent de Paul Food Bank or the St. Patrick unemployment fund. If you have any questions, please contact Frances Parker at 503-263-1288 or fparker@canby.com. Thank you.

Mount Angel Seminararians

MOUNT ANGEL SEMINARIANS ASSISTING ST. PATRICK

St. Patrick's Catholic Church has been so blessed for the past several years to have Seminararians from Mount Angel help in our Religious Education Programs. This year, we have two Seminararians who are helping in the Sunday Elementary Program, two in our Wednesday Religious Education Program and two in our Spanish Religious Education Program. Below, you will find a picture of four of our Seminararians with a description of who they are, what Diocese they are from, along with how they heard the calling to become a Priest. Please keep these young men along with all the Seminararians in your prayers.

My name is Rico Landavazo. I am a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. This is my third year in seminary formation at Mt. Angel Seminary. I am 29 years old, and have known for most of my life that I am called to be a priest. I look forward to serving your community at St. Patrick Parish in Canby, in any way that I can. Please know that I am praying for your whole parish community. I look forward to this school year helping your parish with religious education.

My name is Alberto Carrillo and I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Salt Lake City, before entering seminary I acquired a B.S. in Information Systems from the University of Utah. I was born in Mexico City and have been living in Utah since December 2002. My family consists of my father, mother, and younger sister. This year I hope to be able to learn new ways to catechize through an online platform. I look forward to being able to serve the St. Patrick's community with God's help.

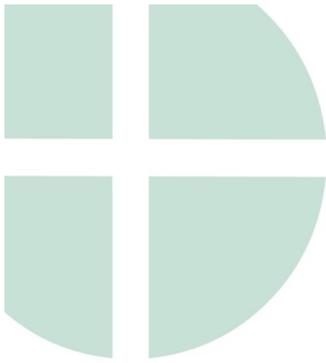

My name is John Paul Langsfeld and I am starting Pre-Theology 2 at Mount Angel Seminary. My home diocese is the Archdiocese of Santa Fe in New Mexico. I am the second youngest of six children. My call to enter the seminary was a very gradual process. The Blessed Virgin Mary has been pivotal in my life and my vocation as she has taken me under her mantle. Her Fiat has inspired me to say yes to God's call. I want to become a priest to administer the sacraments and be an advocate of God's great mercy. I have really enjoyed my short time here in Oregon. The seminary is beautiful, and I have met a lot of great people. In my free time I enjoy playing soccer and watching sports. I also love traveling and spending time with my family. Please say a prayer for me.

Jaime Zuazo

Seminarian for the dioceses of Salt Lake City, completing his 4th year in philosophical studies at Mount Angel Seminary. Jaime is originally from Jalisco Mexico; he is the youngest of 9 siblings. He likes the outdoors and enjoys sharing his faith with others.

The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 15, 2020

Today is World Day of the Poor

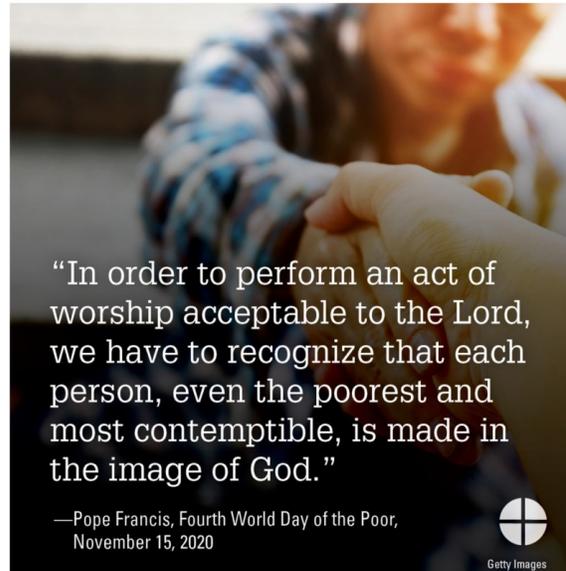

This year's theme is "Stretch forth your hand to the poor." We especially pray for all those who have been impacted by the Coronavirus and encourage a spirit of fraternity amongst our community.

Saint of the Week

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

Feast Day—November 17

Elizabeth's short life was nonetheless full; she had a happy marriage and children, was a secular Franciscan, and was so devoted to the poor and sick that she gave away royal robes and founded hospitals. The daughter of a Hungarian king, Elizabeth married a nobleman of Thuringia, Louis, at age 14. He complained about the expense of her many charities until he witnessed a miracle involving Elizabeth, bread and roses. After he died during a Crusade, she became a Third Order Franciscan at Marburg, Germany, where she founded a hospital to care for the sick. Elizabeth, who was declared a saint in 1235, is the patron of bakers, young brides, widows, those falsely accused, countesses and secular Franciscans.
