REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Mark 1: 14-20

In the wilderness Jesus has withstood Satan's temptation, and, strengthened in spirit by this personal combat, he comes into Galilee, the "springtime" place of first preaching, first ministry, first calling of disciples. Yet there has also been a winter: the arrest and imprisonment of John the Baptist, which add urgency to Jesus' first spoken words in Mark's gospel. The time of God's reigning presence is at hand, and this Good News of God demands a response. "Repent, and believe in the gospel" may have been repeated as an early Christian baptismal call to the catechumens as they descended into the Easter waters to rise up as God's new creation. At infant baptism our parents and our faith community made this response for us; the challenge is for us to say our own continuing adult "Yes" to this call and grow in our discipleship. Urged on by his sense of mission, Jesus passes along the lakeside, the Sea of Galilee. He "saw" Peter and Andrew, with a seeing that penetrates to their deepest selves and their future potential as his disciples whom, with all their successes and failures, he will make fishers of people to draw others into the kingdom. All that Simon and Andrew will become will be because of Jesus and, with contagious gospel urgency, "they abandoned their nets" - the source of their income-and follow him. A little further on another two brothers, James and John, sons of Zebedee, are called while they are involved in their fishermen's task of mending nets. Once again the call and response is immediate and the dispossession is radical when they follow Jesus. It is significant that the first disciples whom Jesus calls are people who must leave what is indicative of their success in a brotherly and family venture: boats, nets, hired servants, parent. They follow Jesus, not hoping for a better lifestyle, but urged by his words to an unconditional obedience to him. From the beginning of his ministry, Jesus gathers a community around himself in a relationship of "brotherliness" that the call of two sets of brothers may also suggest. Like any relationship, this is the "honeymoon" period. Much of what they understand at this moment they will progressively forget, and compromises, obtuseness, status-seeking will replace following until, on the eve of Jesus' passion and death, the disciples leave everything to run from him. CONTINUES INSIDE ON THIRD PAGE!

WELCOME

We are delighted that you are visiting our parish. We hope you can worship with us and we welcome you to become registered with our parish. Please contact Debbie in the Parish Office and she'd be happy to help you register or answer any

IN SYMPATHY

Please remember in your prayers +Gayle Morin, sister of Alice Merrill. Remember Lord, those who have died and have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. May these, and all who sleep in Christ, find in Your presence light, happiness and peace.

THANK YOU

A very special thank you to the following parishioners who graciously volunteered last weekend as greeters at the Masses: Mike & Linda Shields, Lori & David Morton, Mike Zagya, Gloria Morales and Livier Tarula. We would love to have your help. If you would like to volunteer to be greeters at one of our weekend Masses, please contact either Debbie (503-263-1286) or Heriberto (503-263-1292) and they would be happy to have your assistance!

REMINDERS

We love seeing so many of our parishioners back at Mass. Just a few simple reminders in order to attend Mass:

Face masks are required. Please put on your face mask BEFORE entering the church. Also, please make sure your mask covers your nose and mouth.

*We have increased our Mass attendance to 75 per mass. This number allows us to accommodate more parishioners and still keep all of you safe by social distancing.

Everyone is required to sign up to attend weekend Masses, by contacting either Debbie, 503-263-1286 or Heriberto, 503-263-1292.

CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Last weekend we were blessed to have Fr. Pascal Kumanda from Cross Catholic Outreach. More than ever, poor families in developing countries are depending on Catholic missions for assistance with food, water, shelter, medical care and spiritual nourishment. It's not too late to support Cross Catholic Outreach and the efforts of these vital international missions. To participate, please go to CrossCatholic.org/outreach, text BLESSINGS to 474747 or you can find one of the brochures in the back of church.

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Knight of the Month – Matt Bunch. Matt has been a member of St Patrick's Church for over 20 years and has been instrumental in many Knights activities including the annual Crab Feed community fund raiser. Matt has been on Canby Ch. 5 promoting the crab feed fundraiser. Much of the success of the crab feed dinner has been through Matt's countless hours devoted to this event.

Woman of the Month – Alice Wallace is known around St Patrick's for her friendly and welcoming demeanor. Not only does she smile and greet people, she takes note of personal concerns and prayer requests. She exhibits the love of Christ in practical ways by serving at the food bank and St Patrick's community garden and faith sharing at bible study.

Family of the Month – Dennis and Marie Richey. When asked to help find a family that lost their possessions in the wildfires that occurred in late summer, Dennis and Marie responded immediately. Working with the Archbishop, Dennis screened several families and submitted their choice that was adopted by the committee. Dennis with the support of his wife spoke at masses, meeting's and on Canby TV promoting fundraisers including the crab feed dinner coming up on February 6th. The Richey's are a blessing to St Patrick's and the Canby community.

LIVE STREAMED MASSES

We thought maybe some directions and clarification on how to get connected to view Masses on line would be helpful!

The simplest way to do this would be to *go to our website: www.stpatcanby.org.

* On the top right corner of the page, you will see the letter "F". Click on the "F" and it will take you directly to St. Patrick's Facebook page.

*You will have to wait a few minutes before the start of Mass in order for the feed to get started. Once you see the feed started, you can begin to watch the Mass.

Remember, the two Masses on Sunday live-streamed are 10:30a.m. (English) and 12:30p.m.(Spanish).

MISAS TRANSMITIDAS EN VIVO

Pensamos que algunas direcciones y aclaraciones sobre cómo conectarse para ver la misa en línea serían útiles! La forma más sencilla de hacer esto sería:

*Ir a nuestro sitio web: www.stpatcanby.org.

* En la esquina superior derecha de la página, verá la letra "F". Haga clic en la "F" y le llevará directamente a la página de Facebook de St. Patrick.

*Tendrás que esperar unos minutos antes del inicio de la Misa para que el alimentador comience. Una vez que veas que el alimentador empezó, puedes comenzar a ver la Misa.

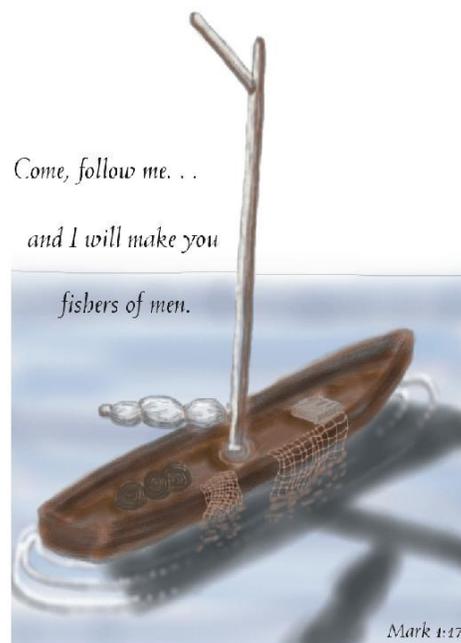

Recuerden, las dos misas del domingo que tenemos en vivo son a las 10:30 a.m. en (Inglés) y 12:30p.m. en (Español). Muchas gracias.

CONTINUATION OF "REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL"

The traditional prophetic calling accounts, such as that of Samuel or Elisha's call by Elijah, are transformed because now it is Jesus who calls. Jesus does not issue orders to his followers like a charismatic military leader; he offers no rallying call to a revolutionary war, but he does make promises. Do we live as though we believe these promises? How constant, how radical are we in our following of Jesus to which we are invited by our baptism? How discerning of its demands are we in our contemporary society, and has Jesus priority in our lives? Do we continually try to launch out into a shared mission with Jesus that will transform us from day to day and draw people into a relationship with him, or do we cling to the safe and familiar? Living Liturgy ~ Year B
