REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Mark 6: 1-6

Each reading this Sunday is about those who were sinned by failure and vulnerability, but who continue to be a guiding light to their communities. Ezekiel is sent by God to the people names as rebels, who are obstinate, defiant, and deaf to God's word. Paul finds himself facing opposition both from those who regard themselves as "super apostles" and who tout around the word of God for their own reputation, and also from the members of the Corinthian church who have fallen under their influence. And Jesus is found to be unacceptable and offensive in his own hometown of Nazareth. Some cultures speak of the "tall poppy syndrome," the delight that some people have in cutting people down to size-usually a bit smaller than their size-by belittling them through subtle innuendo, and disguising resentment of another person's achievements by damning with faint praise. When Jesus is invited to teach in the Nazareth synagogue on the Sabbath, he fails to live up to the expectations of his hometown. What Jesus spoke to the synagogue assembly we are not told, but they were the authoritative words of the one who has exorcised, healed, raised from the dead, and proclaimed the Good News of the kingdom. But in some way the listeners consider that Jesus's words go against their own comfortable interpretation of family customs or established religion traditions. Here is the Nazareth version of the "tall poppy," so Jesus has to be cut down to the hometown size expected by those who think they know everything about him and his family, and recognize him as a local craftsman. Jesus embodies the "scandal" of the ordinary, and familiarity breeds contempt in the assembly whose perceptions are limited to the domestic and parochial. They are closed to any surprising presence and action of God that would violate their own expectations and insight, and consider their own wisdom to be superior to that of Jesus. They ask the right questions, but their prejudgment supplies them with the wrong answers, and amazement deteriorates into offense and rejection.

Thank you for the diversity of our people
And enlarge our capacity for

With all hope, faith, and trust in you,
We pray.
Amen

CONTINUATION OF “REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL”

If the synagogue assembly is amazed at Jesus and has no faith in him, Mark comments ironically that Jesus is amazed at their lack of faith that leads to Jesus’s powerlessness, because for his deeds of power to be effective they must be worked in the context of faith. Jesus has failed to call forth faith where he might have most expected to find it.

That the “Word was made failure and died among us” is the source of our hope, not despair, for as Maria Boulding, OSB, writes: “If you have ever been sickened by the failure of some enterprise into which you put your best efforts and the love of your heart, you are caught up into the fellowship of Christ’s death and resurrection, whether or not you thought of your experience in that way. God had dealt with our failure by himself becoming a failure and so healing it from the inside. This is why we can meet him in our failure; it is a sure place for finding him, since he has claimed it. So central is failure to the Easter mystery that a person who has never grappled with it could scarcely claim to be Christ’s friend and follower.”

We may still be more inclined to listen to those who appear to be prophets on the celebrity circuit rather than those with whom we rub shoulders daily. We need humble ongoing and gospel-based discernment of the authenticity of prophets. Continued success is a dangerous criterion. Living Liturgy year B

The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy Fourth of July!

God, source of all freedom,
this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue a good work begun long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong:
that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts toward the family of nations:

to understand the ways of others,

to offer friendship,

and to find safety only in the common good of all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen.

WALKING THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH BY ADM. JEREMIAH DENTON

Admiral Jeremiah Denton spent over seven years as a prisoner of war in Vietnam. In this moving presentation, he recalls how, through the power of prayer, he withstood extreme torture rather than betray God or the U.S.A. For his valor, he was awarded the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, the Navy Cross, and the POW Medal. He is now a champion of various humanitarian causes. Enjoy his testimony in this talk!

JOHN PAUL II IN AMERICA: UNITING A CONTINENT

The papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on our homeland. Driven a conviction to unite the Americas under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, he traveled from Argentina all the way to Alaska, shaping a generation and changing history along the way. In celebration of our country this week, enjoy this film documenting the journeys of John Paul II, the "Pilgrim Pope."
