REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Mark 46-52

Bartimaeus is sitting at the side of the road, not going anywhere, as Jesus and his disciples approach. They are going somewhere, on the way to Jerusalem. When he hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, hope begins to germinate in the dust that is his own broken self as well as his sitting and begging place. Exiled into destitution by his blindness, probably fallen out of family favor because of the mistaken idea that physical disability was also indicative of a moral taint, Bartimaeus begs for more than alms. With the eyes of faith he shouts out of Jesus, using not only his everyday name but also a messianic title: "Jesus, son of David have pity on me"! The crowd tossed Bartimaeus the rebuke and scorn that are so often earned by those who have the courage to profess their faith, especially if they are regarded as unimportant, marginalized people. The blind Bartimaeus cannot find his way of Jesus; only his longing again reaches out to him across the distance, begging Jesus to have mercy on him. And even in the crowd Jesus is aware of the individual, of the tattered man who is eager for personal contact with him. For that, Jesus will take the time and interrupt his journey. Jesus's command to the crowd, "Call him" combined with the persistence of Bartimaeus, seems to transform them from rebuking to encouraging Bartimaeus, and their voices become a kind of resurrection chorus that urges him to have courage, rise up, and answer Jesus's call. Bartimaeus's response is not only an exultant physical leap, but also a leap of faith. He throws away his cloak, his last poor shred of possessions that, for a beggar, served as coat, sleeping bag, and scrappy collecting rug for the few coins tossed his way. Nothing now matters to Bartimaeus not even his dusty "bit of turf" that, like every beggar, he would have guarded so jealously. Bartimaeus is about to be newly clothed with the identity of a follower of Jesus, an eager beggar of the abundant riches that can be expected as a disciple.

The LORD has delivered his people. They departed in tears but I will console them and guide them. I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that they will not stumble.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION – WHY SHOULD I ENROLL MY CHILD?

With busy schedules and activities, we often wonder why we should enroll our children in religious education classes if they are not preparing to receive a sacrament. It is common for families to enroll their children in the required two-year program to prepare for the Sacrament of First Eucharist and then we often do not see the child again until it is time to prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation, giving our children four years of exposure to our Catholic faith. Is that enough? Have we done our best to prepare our children for a life with Christ? Will they really know who Christ is and how to walk with Him? We understand the importance of receiving the sacraments, but I ask you to reflect on the value of helping your children develop a long-term relationship with not only Christ, but with the members of your parish family. Our faith is forever, and we owe it to ourselves and our children to do the absolute best we can to provide them with the education and tools they will need to navigate our ever-changing world. We see people and families leaving the Catholic church every day, one could argue it is because they have not learned enough about their faith to appreciate the tradition, history, meaning, truth, or sacramental value. If you have questions about our religious education programs or sacramental preparation, please contact any member of the parish staff.

SCHEDULING BAPTISMS

Baptisms are now scheduled on the first Saturday of each month at 11:00a.m. in Spanish and on the first Sunday of the month after the 8:30a.m. Mass in English. Both Father Arturo and Deacon Jerry are available to do the baptisms on Sunday.

15TH ANNUAL HOLIDAY CRAFT BAZAAR

St Patrick Women's group is holding their 15th Annual Holiday Craft Bazaar in the auditorium on November 13th from 9 - 4 pm and on Sunday November 14th from 9 - 2 pm. We will have 20+ tables showcasing wonderful homemade/ handcrafted gifts and items for sale. A Soup kitchen and other goodies will be available at the "cafe" in the multipurpose room. We will have more space to move about this year. Come join the fun.

KNNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CHARITY AUCTION & CRAB DINNER—SAVE THE DATE

Because of Oregon's current Covid-19 restrictions requiring the use of masks indoors, we have decided to wait until November 15th to make a decision to hold a sit-down dinner or do a Drive-thru dinner, like last year. If the mask mandate is not lifted by 15 November, we feel it is of the best interest and safety of our guests, the Knights of Columbus and the Clackamas County Fairgrounds to forgo having the event indoors. So to keep our event alive for its 25th year, we would choose the option of a drive-through event similar to what we had last year. More information about this year's event will be communicated after the 15th, but we wanted to let you know that the date of our event has changed from the 1st Saturday in February to the 4th Saturday in February (February 26th). Over the last 3-4 years, it has been difficult to procure crab because of delays in opening the crab season. Hopefully, this date change will alleviate this issue.

Please save this date.

CONTINUATION OF REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Jesus asks this begger “outsider” the identical question that we heard him ask the two privileged “insider” disciples in last Sunday’s gospel: “What do you want me to do for you?” The contrast of Bartimaeus’s response with theirs is both poignant and prophetic. Blinded by self-aggrandizement to the demands of following a suffering and servant Messiah, the disciples had asked for the best places in the kingdom. Ambition and possessiveness will soon cause them to leave everything to run away from Jesus, but Bartimaeus, aware of his poverty and disability, asks for nothing but that he may see, addressing Jesus reverently as “Rabbouni”

“Master.” This address is only used one other time in the New Testament—when Mary Magdalene recognizes her risen Lord. Jesus knows that the blind man already has the seeing yes of faith, and he tells Bartimaeus that it is this faith that now restores this physical sight. “Go your way; your faith has saved you,” says Jesus. No longer confined to groping his blind way around the place, Bartimaeus can “go” wherever he wants to, but his choice is to follow Jesus “on the way,” the way that leads to Jerusalem, the city of passion, death, and resurrection.

Are we aware of our own blindness, of our inability to recognize Jesus who is passing through our everyday lives? From the depths of our spiritual poverty and disabilities do we urgently ask for insightful faith so that we recognize who Jesus really is or are we reluctant to leave even the small, secure territory of our reputation or material comfort that we have staked out for ourselves and push forward to Jesus, ready to enter with him into whatever “Jerusalem” he will lead us into, with his promise of a share in his passion, death and resurrection?

Living Liturgy—Year B

THE BLIND MAN SAID TO HIM,

*"My teacher,
let me see again."*

Mark 10:51, NRSV
