Volunteers are Needed!

The July 3rd and 4th Rodeo is happening this year. Once again our parish has the opportunity to run the concession stands, beer stands and possibly other jobs as well. Please consider volunteering on either or both days. Families that volunteer receive free rodeo tickets. Parents and Older siblings can rotate their volunteering time while younger kids enjoy the rodeo. Seventy-Five Percent of proceeds from the Rodeo will go to our Youth Ministry. The remaining twenty-five percent will go toward World Youth Day. However if other parish ministries would like to get involved as a ministry, we are happy to revisit how the funds will be dispersed.

There are also many ongoing opportunities to get involved in the ministries of our parish.

Ushers: Needed for our weekend Masses. Greet people, help with the collection, give our bulletins.

Hospitality Ministry: We need a new coordinator as well as volunteers to serve after 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sundays. Perfect opportunity for families.

Adult Choir: We anticipate using a full for our Sunday 10 a.m. Mass soon.

Prayer & Squares: Meet once a month and put quilts together for the sick in our community. No experience necessary. Please contact the parish to volunteer!

THE NEW AMBO

Since the inception of the present church in 1964, Holy Rosary parish has had a modest but very serviceable podium or lectern for proclamation of the word of God. Under Fr. Erickson and Bp. Etienne the plan was conceived to enlarge and re-surface (in marble) the sanctuary floor, and to replace the existing lectern with an ambo that would complement the new floor while further enhancing the dignity of the liturgical celebration.

"Ambo," which comes from a Greek word meaning "elevation," is less often heard than "pulpit" nowadays, but is the more formal term for the place of proclamation in Catholic churches. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states: "The dignity of the word of God requires that in the church there be a suitable place from which it may be proclaimed and toward which the attention of the faithful naturally turns during the Liturgy of the Word. It is appropriate that generally this place be a stationary ambo and not simply a movable lectern.... The dignity of the ambo requires that only a minister of the word should stand at it" (para. 309). Note that "the word" is understood in this context to mean not only the Scriptures, but also the homily or sermon that expounds upon them. The lectern (which, in our church, contains marble from the old communion rail) remains the appropriate place to make other announcements, etc., and is typically found at the other side of the sanctuary.

The structure and placement of an ambo is both functional and symbolic. It draws attention to the sacred proclamation, while not drawing too much attention to the minister himself; it is easily seen, and conducive to easy listening (aided in our times, of course, by electronic amplification). A part of the sanctuary, it nonetheless verges upon the nave, even as the word itself goes forth from the one proclaiming it.

The new ambo project at Holy Rosary began with a submission from a church architect in Chicago, but his design was eventually deemed too large and ornate for our needs, and a smaller, simpler conception replaced it. The ambo as now installed is anchored securely to the floor, has a welded steel inner framework and is fashioned entirely of oak to match the pews and other church furnishings. Various design features echo elements elsewhere in the church; the marble panels match the sanctuary floor. The main decorative feature is the eagle, traditionally a symbol of St. John the Evangelist, which presents to us the book of the Word Himself, Alpha and Omega. Latin inscriptions on the ambo's base and reading desk translate, respectively, "In the beginning [was, and is] the Word" and "Faith [comes] by hearing" – both well suited to the lofty role of this latest addition to our house of worship.

Funding for the ambo came entirely from parishioner contributions earmarked for the purpose. The design and main construction was by Stan Grove, with carvings, moldings and installation assistance by Scott Olsson, gothic traceries by Steve Sawtelle, and metal fabrication by Al Zelenak and Richard Bauman. To God be the glory!
