Behind the Mass Readings

First Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1-3

Early in Jewish history, the twelve tribes of Israel were united into one nation. This passage describes the choice of a successor to the first king, Saul.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:12-20

In this age of space travel, we cannot help but wonder whether there is life on other planets. Then, Christ would be the King over those citizens as well as those on earth. Today's passage from the letter to the Colossians puts the kingship of Jesus into cosmic terms.
