Behind the Mass Readings

First Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10

Living 750 years before Christ, the prophet Isaiah was able to see past the political unrest of his time and look toward the future, where everyone lived in peace. Today, he mentions that King David will be the ruler there.

Second Reading: Romans 15:4-9

Paul chose to encourage — not condemn the Jewish converts who kept their traditions. He knew that they would find it hard to cope, so he emphasized drawing upon the Scriptures they already knew.
