Behind the Mass Readings

First Reading: Isaiah 35:1-6, 10

We are quite familiar with the desert conditions of the Middle East. We can appreciate the promises of Isaiah, such as a lush garden where God’s chosen people will sing and dance after returning from Babylon.

Second Reading: James 5:7-10

Written approximately 50 years after Jesus’ Death and Resurrection, James addresses his letter to the Christians who were disappointed at the delay of the Second Coming. He encourages them to keep their hopes alive amid the daily trials of life.
