Saints and Special Observances

Sunday: Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Monday: Sts. Joachim & Anna, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Thursday: St. Martha

Friday: St. Peter Chrysologus, Bishop and Doctor of the Church

Saturday: St. Ignatius of Loyola, Priest

Saint of the Week: John Vianney

John was born at Dardilly, France, in 1786, a shepherd's son. At the age of twenty, he began to study for the priesthood but was drafted into Napoleon's army. After being wounded he deserted and returned home in 1810. He went to Lyons seminary in 1813. John was ordained despite the fact that he had great difficulties with his studies, especially Latin. In 1818 he became the pastor of Ars. His mission there was conducted in the confessional, and toward the end of his life he spent sixteen to eighteen hours a day administering the Sacrament of Penance, or Reconciliation, to the thousands who flocked to Ars. John was gifted with discernment of spirits and read souls with ease, reclaiming thousands of lapsed Catholics. John died at Ars. He was canonized in 1925 and made patron of parish priests.

Weekly Miracle

This week marks the beginning of a kind of "liturgical detour." We have been listening to Saint Mark's Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John's Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord's statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, in which Jesus refers to himself as the "bread of life." Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements—bread and wine—into the Lord's Body and Blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing.
