This Week: St. Andrew Martyr

St. Andrew, also known as Andrew the Apostle, was an Apostle of Jesus. In the early days of the Church, preached the Good News around the shores of the Black Sea and throughout what is now Greece and Turkey. He was martyred by crucifixion in Patras, Greece, being bound, rather than nailed, to an X-shaped cross or a "saltire."

Today this is commonly referred to as "St. Andrew's Cross." It is believed Andrew requested to be crucified this way, because he deemed himself "unworthy to be crucified on the same type of cross as Jesus." St. Andrew is the patron saint of fishermen and singers. He is also the patron saint to Scotland, Romania, Russia, Ukraine and Patras. His feast day is celebrated on November 30.

Sts. Peter and Paul Family Christmas party is Dec. 4th, at 5pm. We will begin with a Christmas program performed by our children.

If your child would like to participate in a reading role, please contact me this week. (kimberly.harrelson@stspic.org). Those interested will be given a poem to practice, and will be expected to practice with me during the CCE class on Dec. 4th, and be at the church at 4pm on Dec. 4th.

All other children who would like a non-speaking role in our "no practice Nativity" play, need to be at the church at 4pm, on Dec. 4th, in costume, or choose one of our costumes, the day of the play. This is always a fun night for the whole family! I hope you are able to join us.

I pray that God blesses us all, with hearts full of Joy, and just so you know, I am very grateful for the blessing of our parish family.

Kimberly Harrelson, DRE

Of Kings and Kingship

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today's feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King.

Our readings help us consider what it is like to belong to God's kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke's Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a "Holy Year," keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words "and of his kingdom there will be no end" were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism's waters, we are anointed with chrism "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king." This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.

I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live by the light that I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, and stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong. - Abraham Lincoln
