Please pray for our teen “pilgrims”

This coming weekend I will accompany members of our youth group to a conference at Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio. This will be our second year going, and I have found that these trips are always a great blessing to teens, priests, and chaperones alike. This year's theme is “Belong”, a meditation on the Scripture verse: “See what love the Father has bestowed on us, that we may be called children of God.” (1 John 3:1) So many people in our society feel isolated, abandoned, or alone. If we come to experience the fact that God Himself has adopted us into his own family—a family we call the Church, the august community spanning both Heaven and Earth——our knowledge that we belong to God as his own dear children will enable us to press on when times are tough. I hope this knowledge is just one of the fruits this encounter with Christ will give rise to in the life of our teen pilgrims.

Steubenville conferences are always memorable because of their speakers and musicians (some of the names on this year's ministry team are Fr. Leo Patalinghug and Steve Angrisano). Conference participants hear inspiring talks about the beauty of our faith, and why living a Catholic life, instead of living as the world suggests, is the way to authentic and lasting joy. And more than just hearing about this life of faith, they get to share it with thousands of their peers. Dozens of priests (including several accompanying various youth groups from around our diocese) will hear many hundreds of Confessions during the weekend. God's mercy will transform lives.

As I prepare for this trip, I've been thinking about the first youth conference I attended, when I was a sophomore in high school. My church's youth group consisted of only four teenagers at that point, but the four of us piled into a van and were driven down to a state-wide gathering where we were challenged to live in accordance with the will of God for our lives. The talks that I heard and the conversations I had with my pastor were certainly moments that nurtured and encouraged my own vocation. I have no doubt that this conference will likewise prepare and encourage a new generation to serve Christ—especially as our teenagers encounter Him in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

While I am away with our teens, next weekend's Masses will be celebrated by Fr. Brian Carpenter, P.S.S., a priest of the Diocese of Rochester who is a member of the Society of Saint Sulpice, a group of priests whose special work is to teach in seminaries. He will be with us through Tuesday morning and I will return on Tuesday afternoon.

Please pray for our safe travels and for the growth in holiness of all who will be attending this youth conference.

God bless,
Fr. Peter

P.S. For our college-bound young adults: See below for information about an upcoming event, “Keeping your Faith in College”!

College-bound this Fall? Save the date!

On Tuesday, July 23rd at 6:00pm (immediately following Benediction in church) St. John's will host our second annual "Keeping your Faith in College" round-table discussion about the challenges of living as a Catholic on a college campus. Our featured speaker/moderator this year will be Mark Wegener, a class of 2017 graduate of Roberts Wesleyan College. Statistically, most Catholics cease to practice their faith after High School: don't let this happen to you! This topic is enormously important, so please invite all those who have recently graduated high school (including friends from other parishes!) to join us in the parish center (building with four white columns) for this talk. Returning college students home for the summer are also welcome to share their experiences of the "highs and lows" of a life of faith on campus. Pizza will be provided. RSVP is not required but appreciated to estimate amount of food: e-mail sstjohnc@dor.org or call 352-5481.

Saturday 5:00 pm, Sunday 7:45, 9:30 & 11:15 am

Prayer Chain: We need your help praying! If you would be interested in becoming a member of the prayer chain you can do so by calling the Parish Office. If you are unsure we ask that you prayerfully consider it over the summer. We will have an informational meeting in late August. Don't wait if you are ready to start praying now! Call us and we will put you in touch with Marcia Sission (our Prayer Chain leader).

St. John's parishioners have access to prayers for any need through our prayer chain ministry. Anyone can call and ask for prayers for any reason at any time. Complete anonymity is possible, no names need be given if you desire. Simply ask for prayers for "someone or something." A group of dedicated fellow parishioners will pray for your intention, and continue to offer their prayers daily until we are told that the need has passed. Call for prayer requests at 352-5481, ext. 213. Let us prayerfully help with what is troubling you!

Social Ministry News Whatever you did for the least of my brothers, you did for Me. Whatever you did for the least of my brothers, you did for Me. Poor Box Collections for July will go to St. Andrews Food Cupboard. St. Andrews has expanded and re-organized to better serve the needs of Portland Ave. residents. Clients are interviewed to understand their family needs and offer referrals for assistance. A volunteer then leads the shopper with a cart to guide them toward nutritious food choices. The final step of their strategy is to purchase their building and become a permanent resource to the community. Ecumenical Food Shelf does not have any specific needs at this time. If you are in need of food assistance, call 277-4917. Last week Deacon Mike Zuber spoke to us about his calling to jail ministry at the Monroe County Jail. He requested that the inmates would like used soft-covered Bibles and calendars without spiral wire. If you have either of these items, there will be collection bins at both entrances starting this weekend. Thank you for your support of Deacon Mike’s jail ministry.
