STORYTIME STEM

Did you know that stories can inspire STEM projects? This month, try reading The Night the Saints Saved Christmas (video read-aloud here) with your child, then encourage them to try designing and building a sleigh that will fit all of the saints who are filling in for Santa.

SUGGESTED MATERIALS: scrap paper; Q-tips/popsicle sticks, tape, cardboard, play dough, blocks, or some combination thereof

TIPS FOR PARENTS

- While traveling over the holidays, play a story-building game. Have each member of the family in turn add one sentence at a time. See how silly you can make it!
- Use our Bookflix subscription! Find ebooks, read-aloud videos, kid-friendly research links, author info, and more. See tips here. Username: redeemer Password: bookflix
- Books are a wonderful Christmas gift for everyone! Try buying used from thriftbooks.com or abebooks.com.

The Environmental Club

We are concerned about plastic pollution in our community, and we are doing something about it!

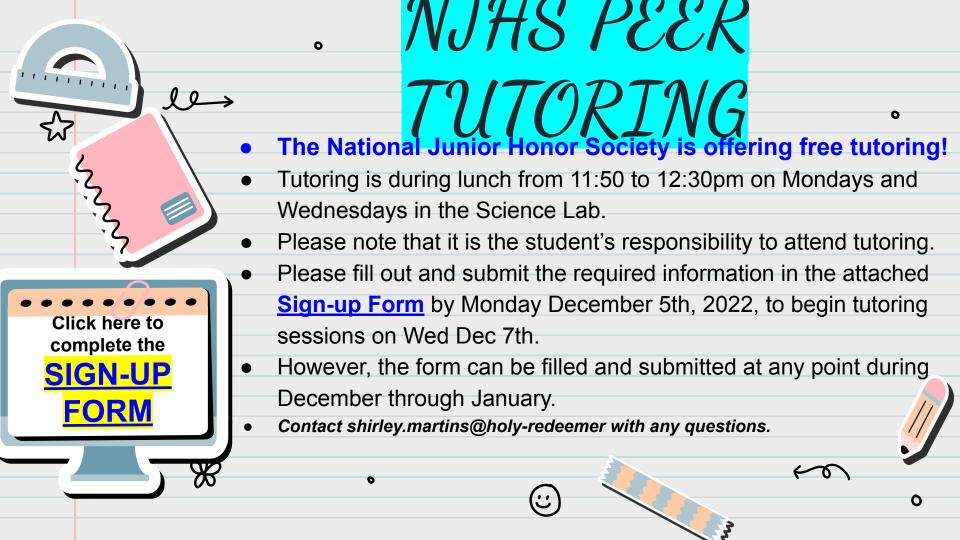

We will learn to reuse, repurpose, and to upcycle material that would otherwise go into landfills and cause more pollution!

Please bring in and donate your plastic grocery store bags of any color.

They must be clean, dry, and not smelly, please! 😉

Thank you!!
