Fellowship time: Please come to the social hall for coffee & doughnuts after the Sunday Masses. *This Sunday, April 15, the Knights of Columbus are in charge. Next Sunday, April 22, is the Youth Group.

Moral Questions on use of Drones: The Holy See has urged discussion of the ethical implications of the use of armed drones in international forums. Archbishop Silvano Tomasi noted in 2014 at a meeting on the United Nations' Convention on Certain Conventional Weapons (CCW): "The ethical implications are not insignificant. The choice of indifference in relation to this question is counter-productive. … There is still time for the CCW to become interested in drones before they become an additional source of greater destabilization when the international community needs more than ever stability, cooperation and peace." For more information on the Church's thinking on the use of drones, visit: www.interfaithdronenetwork.org/images/Catholic_Views_on_Drone_Warfare_Films_Supplementary_Guide.pdf

Youth Ministry Corner

Youth Nights: The 7th/8th grade youth group meets each Wednesday from 6:30 to 7:45 pm in the St. Mary's room. The high school youth group (grades 9 - 12) meets each Wednesday, 7:15 to 8:30 pm.

Worship Night | Saturday, April 21, 6 pm | St. Thomas More |
The youth group will host its second annual ecumenical Worship Night at the St. Thomas More Newman Center. This is a fun opportunity for Christian youth from around Pullman to worship together. Musicians from Gonzaga University will lead the service and refreshments will be served after the service. We hope all the youth will bring a friend and be ready to sing! For more info contact Kent Bachir at sacredheartpullmanym@gmail.com.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION: The public is invited to a Saturday, April 21, seminar presentation to the Whitman County Genealogical Society by Father Mike Savelesky, diocesan archivist, on the research treasures to be found in the sacramental records of Catholic parishes. Titled Cooking the Church Books, the talk will explain why the Church keeps records of its central sacramental activities and how it organizes that historical information, and how to glean it from the books.
Place: Social Room, Bishop Place Independent Living, 811 SE Klemgard, Pullman, WA.
Time: 10:45 am. Cost: No Fee. Please RSVP to 509-635-1303 or whitmancgs@gmail.com to accommodate handouts and refreshments.
[Come at 9 am for a talk by WSU professor, Horace Alexander, on The Buffalo Soldiers and the Tuskegee Airmen.]

Ecumenical Corner

Division among Christians openly contradicts the will of Christ who prayed, "that they may all be one." Jn 17:21. The restoration of unity among Christians has been one of the Church's main concerns since the Second Vatican Council. The movement toward Christian unity is called "Ecumenical."

Baptism is the foundation of communion among all who believe in Christ. Through it they are incorporated into Christ and with good reason are accepted as brothers and sisters by the children of the Catholic Church. The baptized are called to commit themselves to the search for unity. Second Vatican Council's Decree on Ecumenism; Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1271.
