Thank you note received for parish Caritas donation

May 1, 2023

Dear Sacred Heart Parish,

THANK YOU! Your generous and caring gift of $2,000 for Somalia means so much - and will go far to help a family, child, woman or man overcome great challenges.

Your kindness helps alleviate hunger, quench thirst, prevent disease, improve livelihoods and change lives. You bring hope to people living their darkest days.

Simply put, Catholic Relief Services cannot work without the support of friends like you!

Your gift puts you "on the ground" with us as we respond to a global food crisis; support our partners after disasters like the earthquakes in Turkey and Syria; and assist women, men, children and families affected by war.

Your care means so much to so many!

May God bless you for your thoughtful and important donation - and your spirit of love and compassion.

You've made a meaningful difference in someone's life!

Peace and light,

Sean L. Callahan, President & CEO

Men's RV (or tent) Retreat at St. Patrick Parish, Colfax, 5 pm Friday, June 30, until 5 pm Mass Sat., July 1. Meals provided by the Knights of Columbus. Bring your own extra drinks, and a snack to share. The retreat gives Catholic men of the area an opportunity to relax, disconnect from daily life, and reconnect to themselves and other men. They can spend quality time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, receive the sacrament of reconciliation, receive one-on-one spiritual direction from a priest, and enjoy two conferences on our faith from Rev. Lucas Tomson.

To register, contact St. Patrick Parish Office at 509-397-3921 or cmurphy@dioceseofspokane.org.
