Help Homeless Families on the Palouse

Sacred Heart has been a partner with Family Promise of the Palouse for over 10 years. This organization hosts homeless families in local churches in Pullman and Moscow, and helps them obtain jobs and housing. The families spend the evenings at the churches, and the day at the Family Promise Day Center in Moscow.

Four times a year, Sacred Heart hosts families at Pullman Presbyterian Friday and Saturday nights. Our next hosting is October 20 and 21. We need a meal each night, evening hosts to share the meal, and overnight hosts to stay at the church. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please contact Tim Paulitz at 509 332-6184 or email at fungustim@gmail.com. Over the last 10 years, we have helped over 100 families, all with children.

Dinners for 8

You and your spouse, or significant other, or friend, go to dinner once a

The social hall is available for hosting.

ALL ADULTS are welcome!

Look for the sign-up sheets in mid-October.

Laudato Si Day of Prayer and Action

Catholic Charities of Eastern Washington invites you to join them for a day of prayer, reflection, and action, considering solutions our Church offers us to care for our global neighbors and common home.

Anna Johnson, Senior Programs Manager, North America, Laudato Si Movement, will be the keynote speaker, and will provide participants with ways to make a positive impact amid ecological crises.

In the afternoon, Ben Chu, Office of Mission & Ministry, Gonzaga University, will guide the group on an ecological walk and provide other practical applications of ecological spirituality.

The day will wrap up with Mass led by Bishop Emeritus, the Most. Rev. William Skylstad.

The retreat is at Immaculate Heart Retreat Center on Saturday, October 28, 2023, from 8-4. Cost is $50, which includes lunch and refreshments. Register at ihrc.net/events/laudato-si-day-of-prayer-and-action

Or call 509-448-1224 or email kparker@ihrc.net.
