A NOTE FROM FR. DALE

“...prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.”

I like mysteries. I remember as a child reading the Encyclopedia Brown mystery series. There was always a crime or problem to be solved that the young sleuth would ultimately figure out, and I sought to have those same powers of reasoning. Solving a crime or problem is what most of us think about when we hear “mystery.” Yet, mystery means something else when it comes to our faith.

When we speak of mystery in terms of our faith we refer to truths about God, Christ, the sacraments and worship, creation and even our very lives. Mystery is something that cannot fully be known, but we are given some knowledge by God revealing, communicating it to us. This is the mystery of faith (mysterium fidei in Latin). It is something which we cannot see completely, but we can know it is happening. We can experience it, but there is more than meets the eye – our physical senses.

There can be a temptation to simply refer to anything we can't understand as a mystery and then give up – a problem that can't be solved. It is different with our faith. We are invited to acknowledge the mystery and not solve it BUT enter into it. This approach is less like a detective and more like a musician or artist. For musician and artists the goal isn't simply to make a product or solve a problem. They create an experience, something others can experience. If we approach faith as something to experience, like a musician or artist, we are preparing to enter into mystery. No two songs or painting are exactly alike. No two people have the same experience of the music or art. Our experience of the mysteries of our faith are unique experiences.

We all have experiences of God each day – some ordinary and some extraordinary. Ordinary experiences are experiencing the mystery of nature or sense of God in prayer. Extraordinary are those deeper insights or hearts moved. It can even be life changing. By acknowledging our experiences of God's truth, beauty and power, we let the mystery affect us. We also develop “eyes of faith” to see the experiences more often. Entering into the experience we grow in the mystery of God and His work in our lives.

At Mass we use the word mystery a lot. We begin Mass by having the priest invite us to prepare to celebrate the “sacred mysteries.” Right after the consecration the priest says, “The mystery of faith.” Frequently prayers refer to the Paschal mystery. What do we mean by mystery in the context of our faith and Mass?

Catholic Mass, the celebration of the Eucharist, is an opportunity to experience a most powerful mystery – Christ Jesus. Built on the Jewish understanding of the ritual of Passover (participating not just remembering) and our Lord's words at the Last Supper, we enter into a mystery beyond simply understanding. Through all five senses we are invited to open up to a powerful experience of Christ. He is present and comes to us in both His word and in the Sacrament of His body and blood. Part of the repetitive nature of Mass (the rituals and responses) is to help move beyond simply rational prayer (logical part of brain) and to experiential prayer (engaging other parts of our minds). Eucharist is a primary experience of sacred mystery since it is our participation in the Paschal Mystery of Jesus. We are able to enter into the mystery and participate in it. We are not only touched by this mystery, but we receive the mystery itself – Jesus Christ.

Take time this week to ponder the mystery of God in your life. If you aren't sure, ask God to show you. That simple prayer is a preparation to enter into mystery. God is revealing the mystery of who He is and who we are all the time. Our life, our entire relationship to God, is a mystery to be lived and not a problem to be solved. While I love to solve a good mystery, those which can't be solved are most beneficial and life giving. Those are the mysteries of our life as followers of Jesus Christ.

“...the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory.” ~Colossians 1:26-27

2022 Annual Catholic Ministries Appeal

(Formerly Fruitful Harvest)

Our parish's commitment weekend for the 2022 Annual Catholic Ministries Appeal, which was formerly called Fruitful Harvest and Seminarian Appeal, will be February 5-6, 2022. You should have, (or will be receiving) an envelope in the mail from Bishop Doherty with a brochure, pledge card and return envelope for mailing.

The name of the appeal changed so that focus is placed on the many ministries that are supported and to increase the transparency of how the funds raised from this appeal are utilized to support the works of Christ directly through the diocese, as well as through the ministries that help each of our local parishes.

Here are the lists of the Diocesan Supported Ministries and Ministries to Parishes that are funded through the Catholic Ministries Appeal:

Clergy Support	Administration
College Ministries	Uniting in Heart
Catholic Schools	Stewardship
Saint Joseph Retreat Center	Marriage Tribunal

Appeal Prayer

Our Grateful Response

Loving and generous God, Your Son, Jesus Christ said, "This is my commandment: that you love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12).

By the power of your Holy Spirit

May we recognize the abundance of Your loving gifts in our lives.

May we have the grateful heart of a Christian disciple.

May we respond with trusting generosity as we participate in the Catholic Ministries Appeal, and support Christ's mission in the Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana.

With Mary and Joseph, we ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
From January 1 to December 31, 2022
Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana

When you donate to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are helping to pay for the formation of your seminarians, assisting with the health insurance and living expenses of your retired priests, and the college ministry programs at Ball State, Purdue and Wabash College. Your gift supports the life-changing spiritual encounters with Christ at the Saint Joseph Retreat & Conference Center, the pastoral annulment proceedings at the Marriage Tribunal, and the creation and ministry of many programs. These things contribute to an effort to help every soul across our 24 counties to know Jesus Christ and to foster a deeper personal commitment to follow Him in His Church. Please prayerfully consider how you can help St. John Vianney reach it's goal of $80,503. Thanks for your continued support!
