**REMINDER****

No Aftercare Thursday, December 18

Our Holy Rosary kitchen holiday volunteers have returned. Be sure to welcome Gordon and Raji back!

Immaculate Conception

On December 8, we celebrate the Immaculate Conception. Immaculate means pure or without blemish. This Holy Day celebrates that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was conceived without original sin. We will be going to Mass to participate in the Holy Day of Obligation.

Advent

Advent is a joyous season of preparation! The word itself actually derives from the Latin word meaning 'coming'. During these four weeks, we prepare our hearts for the coming of Jesus with prayer, meditation, and more. Celebrating Advent is a meaningful way to prepare our hearts for Christmas.

Looking ahead...

Basketball for grades 3-6 will start in January. Permission forms went home.

A Pancake Breakfast to kick off Catholic Schools Week will be held on Sunday, January 25. Watch for volunteer opportunities.

Thank you for the many, many birthday wishes and hugs from students and staff. It was a great day!

Scrip for Sale!!

Student Council will be selling Scrip cards before school in front of the Parish Office on the following dates: December 10, 12, 17 and 19. This is an easy way to support our school, lower your tuition costs and maybe finish your Christmas shopping!

Grades 3 and 5 wrote notes to homeless veterans. They were personally thanked by a representative who will be delivering the cards.

Mr. Johaneck and the band students have been practicing hard for the Christmas program.

Aspirus Hospital sponsored the Lites of Love Essay contest to all Taylor County fourth graders. This year's theme was 'Why is it important for the Medford community to have a hospital?' Holy Rosary had the top four winners. We are so proud of all their hard work.

St. Nicholas stopped for a visit and gave each student a small treat!

Holy Rosary School received a grant from the Taylor County Literacy Council to purchase The Hunt Club Kids Series books for our library. Thank you Taylor County Literacy Council!

Thank you to the Dahlvig family for donating our Christmas trees. We appreciate your generosity.
