New 55+ Fellowship “HEARTSTRINGS” Launches at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish

A new chapter of connection and community has begun at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Cicero, Indiana, as parishioners gathered to launch HEARTSTRINGS, a fellowship group for adults age 55 and over.

The initiative began when Fr. Sean Pogue, Pastor invited parishioner Leona Chianello to take the lead in forming a fellowship focused on connection, companionship, and joy. She gladly accepted.

They chose the name HEARTSTRINGS to reflect the idea that, regardless of age, we remain deeply connected through friendship, shared experiences, and faith.

To introduce the new ministry, Chianello planned and coordinated a Meet and Greet held on Wednesday, April 22. The event was designed not only as an introduction, but as an opportunity for attendees to help shape future gatherings centered on fellowship - and FUN.

“I hoped for 20 people, and planned for 40 just in case,” Chianello shared. “I was happily surprised when 80 people showed up.”

The strong turnout and enthusiastic response made for an evening filled with warmth, laughter, and meaningful conversation. Attendees were eager to share ideas for future events and build new friendships within the parish community.

With such a successful beginning, HEARTSTRINGS is now moving forward with plans to host regular activities and gatherings, creating opportunities for connection and enjoyment for SHJ adults 55 and over.
