A Vocation View: Jesus said: "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." Today he could say: "I will make you mechanics of souls; doctors of wounded hearts, counselors of broken families; clowns in a joyless society." But regardless, Come! If you want to talk about your vocation discernment, call Fr. Joe Zabinski at 763-497-2474 or email: frjoe@churchofstalbert.org.

From the Desk of Fr. Joe Zabinski

Dear Parishioners of St. Albert's

These past months, we have had a parish feasibility team consisting of 6 parishioners and our consultant. Within this team, we have been thinking about and planning for the future of our parish. As we heard in a letter from the Archbishop, we are a parish and will be one in the future. Because of this, it is good to plan for our future growth in our parish. It is important to do this so that we can make prudent decisions and use our resources to the best of our abilities. From this planning, we will have a building project to address the needs of our parish so as to achieve our overall goals. Within a couple of months, we will have a feedback fair to allow everyone to give us feedback on the planning that we have undertaken. Thank you for your continued prayers and patience in the planning process!

God bless you,
Fr. Joe Zabinski

A New Era of Hope

"From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" Matthew 4:17

In Matthew's Gospel, from which we read today, we hear the first words spoken by our Lord as He begins His public ministry: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Up until this point, Matthew's Gospel presented us with Jesus' genealogy, His birth, the story of the Magi, the Holy Family's flight into Egypt, the slaughter of the Holy Innocents, Jesus' baptism, the preaching of Saint John the Baptist and Jesus' forty days in the desert. Now, after these introductory stories of Jesus' life, we enter into His public ministry.

Recall that John had just been imprisoned, thus concluding his public ministry. Therefore, the time for the preaching and ministry of the Son of God had arrived. And though Jesus continues the theme of repentance started by John, Jesus takes John's words further. Jesus adds something that John could not: "The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Since we are still at the beginning of the season of Ordinary Time, it's important to understand this transition from the Old Testament prophets, of which John was the last, to the New Testament preaching of our Lord. The difference is that all that had been prophesied and pointed to in the Old Testament had now arrived. Saint Jerome, in commenting upon this passage, says that as the Old Testament Law ceased, the Gospel commenced. And, of course, the fulfillment of this new era of the Gospel was only a few short years away when our Lord would offer up His life for the salvation of many.

As Jesus begins His preaching, His words are challenging but also very hopeful. By saying that "the kingdom of heaven is at hand," Jesus stirs interest and holy curiosity among His first listeners. His call to repentance was softened by His new proclamation about the Kingdom.

One helpful insight we can take ... Continued on Page III

Reflect, today, upon the newness of the ministry of Jesus, the newness of the first proclamation of the Gospel. As you do, try to imagine the holy curiosity that many would have had as they first listened to Jesus preach. Soon He would follow up His preaching with many signs and wonders that would confirm His message. But at first, Jesus simply instilled a hope in His hearers. As you ponder this, think about those in your life who also need this initial sense of hope and holy curiosity about the Gospel and pray that God will inspire you and use you to be an instrument of this merciful message.

Lord, as You began Your public ministry of proclaiming the Kingdom of Heaven, You instilled hope and a holy curiosity in the minds and hearts of Your first hearers. Please continue this good work and use me as You will to be an instrument of this hope in those I encounter every day. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I trust in You!

Parish Pastoral Council Nominations

Next weekend, January 28/29, is Nomination Weekend at St. Albert's. Parishioners are asked to nominate either yourself or someone you know who would be a good candidate for the Parish Pastoral Council. The top 6 candidates nominated will be contacted for placement on the ballot. Elections will then take place February 25/26.

What is the Parish Pastoral Council?

The Parish Pastoral Council is a consultative body that typically meets monthly for 2 hours to assist the Pastor in his leadership role of planning, organizing, initiating, and reviewing the mission and ministries of the parish. Members are elected by parishioners and serve a minimum of a 3-year term in an advisory capacity to the Pastor. In addition to our monthly meeting, we help with a few special projects throughout the year. These include creating and riding on the float for Albertville Friendly City Days; organizing and serving for St. Albert Feast Day. We also serve on other committees to help connect those committees to the Parish Council as well as get input from the Parish Council and report back to the committees.

Qualifications:

Any person who is a fully initiated, Catholic Christian, baptized, confirmed, admitted to receive the Holy Eucharist, and is a registered member of St. Albert's Parish may qualify to be a council member.

Sharing and Caring Hands

St. Albert's will be serving a Noon meal at Sharing and Caring Hands on Tuesday, January 24. We are looking for donations of bars and cookies and volunteers to help prepare the meal after Mass on Tuesday morning. If you can go along to serve the meal please call Sue Zachman at 763-497-2573.

from these first words of Jesus' public ministry is that this is the best way to share the Gospel with those who do not yet follow Christ. Oftentimes, when we see someone living in serious sin, we want to judge and condemn. But usually what they need the most is hope — hope that there is something much greater that comes from repentance. Certainly we need to speak against sin. But one of the most effective ways to do so is by initially offering the listener hope of something much better than the sin with which they struggle—specifically, the hope of the Kingdom of God. <https://mycatholic.life/>

Respect for Life Prayer

O God, our eyes behold the beauty of your creation, and our ears catch the sounds of your power. We hold our lives sacred because they are your gift. Bring us to greater awareness of the sanctity of human life and to sorrow for the times we have ignored or offended it. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
