From the Desk of Fr. Joe Zabinski

God is more like a Family than a Monk

We pray in the "name" of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, not in their "names." God must logically be only one. To hold that there is a vast government of gods is to hold that two mountains are the tallest in the world, that three oceans are the deepest, and that on four days the sun shone the brightest. Another way to say "God" is to say "the best." God is the best. And there can only be one "best," "tallest," "deepest," and "brightest." God is the ultimate superlative adjective whose nature admits of no competing god. Christian monotheism stops us from approaching different gods for different things. We believe in one God with one will, one mind, and one plan for mankind.

The Holy Trinity, the God of Christianity, is complex. Clear language must be used and clear thinking deployed to grasp the Christian God. There are no backyard garden statues of the Holy Trinity like there are of Saint Francis of Assisi, because the Trinity is cerebral in a way that Saint Francis is not. On this solemnity, we celebrate the dogma of all dogmas because dogma matters. We sing songs to dogma, put flowers on the altar to dogma, and wear our best clothes for dogma. The Church's thinking about God is not child's play. Once we accept thoughts, they own us. At some point we no longer choose our thoughts, they choose us. So we must get God right so that we get everything else right—marriage, family, work, love, war, money, philosophy, humor, religion, fun, sports, etc. Bad people can be forgiven, but bad ideas less so. And bad ideas about God are dangerous. They caused skyscrapers to crumble to the ground.

The Church believes that God is one in His nature and three in His persons. This means that if you were in a pitch black room and sensed a presence nearby, your first question would be "What is that?" "Is it the dog or the cat, my spouse, or the wind?" If it were God in the darkness, He would answer the question of "what" by saying "I am God." Satisfied that the presence was a person and not an animal or the wind, the next question would be "Who are you?" And to that question, St. Albert's Float & Parade Help Needed Calling all Gardeners and Youth!

We need your help to decorate St. Albert's float for the Friendly City Days Parade. The theme for the float this year is:

"Growing a Garden of Love for The Lord".

We will be decorating the float on Wednesday, June 7 at 6:30pm in the parking lot of the church by the garage.

With having a garden theme we need potted plants (any flowers, fruits, or vegetables) that we could borrow to help decorate the float. If you can come help decorate or drop off the borrowed potted plants on Wednesday, June 7 at 6:30pm that would be very helpful. All plants can be picked up after the parade back at the church parking lot by the garage.

The parade is on Sunday, June 11 starting at 12:30pm. We have to lineup on Barthel Industrial Drive starting at 10:00am and would need any volunteers to ride on the float to be there by 11:45am. To tie into the theme, if float riders have garden boots or gloves to wear that would be a nice addition. Thank you in advance for your generosity and help.

Open Adoration Chapel at Parish Center

All are invited to a time of prayer during the Friendly City Days Events. A chapel at the Parish Center will be open in Room #108 on Friday, June 9 from 3:00-9:00pm and on Saturday, June 10 from 7:00am-12:30pm. If you are interested in attending the evangelization table to greet visitors or attending an hour of adoration during that time, please contact Brenda at 763-286-8570.

TOWN HALL MEETING

St. Albert Parish Center

Monday, June 12 | 6:00-7:00pm

An additional town hall meeting is being held to ensure everyone has had the opportunity to provide input on what should be considered for the master plan for the future of St. Albert's church as well as the whole parish campus.

We value your input & want to hear from you!

Share with our Architects ATS&R on what you feel is important for the long-term vision of the parish campus to meet the future needs of our community, while also preserving the things that are most valuable to us.

- If you came to one of the two Town Halls & provided input already – thank you!
- If you were unable to attend one of the Town Halls offered or were unable to share your input – join us for this newly added Town Hall!
- This is our time to dream & vision on what is needed for St. Albert's Parish Campus in order to fulfill the mission God has ordained for us. Help us plan for our current & future parishioners, the greater community, & for the mission of our parish.
- Provide input such as: worship space needs, meeting, event, and gathering space needs, what needs to be improved or upgraded, what you see as necessary and needed in a future space at St. Albert's, and any others suggestions that would enhance our worship space and the whole parish campus.

God would reply in three successive voices: "I am the Father. I am the Son. I am the Holy Spirit." A nature is the source of operations, but a person does them. A statue has eyes but it is not its nature to see. It is not man's nature to lay eggs or to breathe under water, but it is the nature of a bird or a fish to do so. Our nature sets the parameters for what actions are possible for us. The daughter of a lion is a lioness and does what lions do. The son of a man is a man and does what men do. And the Son of God is God and knows and loves and acts as God does—perfectly.

Our Trinitarian supernova is both a unity and a plurality, both one and many at the same time. This means that God does not exist alone but in a community of love. God is not narcissistic, admiring his own beauty and perfection. Instead, the love of the Father is directed toward the Son for all eternity. And the love of the Holy Spirit animates, and passes between, the Father and the Son. The Trinity's three persons do not share portions of the divine nature, they each possess it totally. This theology means, by extension, that because man is made in the image and likeness of God, every person is created in order to model the Trinity by living with, and for, another, just as God does in His inner life. Because God is a Trinity of persons, then, His perfection is more fully embodied by an earthly community, such as a family, rather than by a lone monk.

The Trinity is not just scaffolding which obscures the true face of God. Nor are the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit three masks which conceal the one face of God. The one God exists as a Trinity. The Church's belief in God and the Church's belief in the Trinity stand and fall together. The Trinity is not just the summit of our faith, something we work toward understanding, but also our faith's foundation. The truth of the Holy Trinity is learned early and often. Our God, distinct in His persons, one in His essence, and equal in His majesty, is solemnly invoked as the water spills on our heads at Baptism and as the oil is traced on our palms at our anointing. God, in all of His complexity and in all of His simplicity, is with us always in this world and, hopefully, in the world to come.

Volunteers will be at the entrances, but just let them know what you are coming for. If you are planning on staying and going to the festivities after Mass and would like to stay in the parking lot, that's okay, and if you are able to, any donation would be warmly welcomed.

Also, if you are planning on attending any of the events held at the Parish Center offered by our Parish — Family Fun Night, BINGO, Spaghetti Dinner, or the Breakfast you DO NOT have to pay for a spot, but if you would like to give a donation, it will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for any and all support. May God Bless You! ;)

Sacred Heart of Jesus

June is a “regal, royal month of Our Lord and His social kingship,” says radio host Mike Church.

MAKE JUNE “HUMILITY MONTH” (LifeSiteNews)
Radio host Mike Church is calling on Christians to reclaim June as a reverent month focused on the Sacred Heart of Jesus by celebrating it as “Humility Month.”

Traditionally during June, Catholics have honored the Sacred Heart of Jesus, whose feast day is during that month. June is also the occasion of the feasts of Corpus Christi, Saints Peter and Paul, and Saint John the Baptist – a martyr for the sanctity of marriage.

June is supposed to be a “joyful, reverent” month full of increased Eucharistic Adoration and processions to honor Our Lord, Church told LifeSiteNews.

The radio host maintains that June was chosen as “pride” month by LGBT activists to “create maximum offense against the Son of God and therefore God himself.”

Church said he had been thinking about launching a “Humility Month” initiative since 2016, when the first “really in-your-face, blasphemous ‘pride month’” occurred, as political fights over transgender bathrooms were beginning. (It was only in 2015 that the U.S. Supreme Court redefined marriage; readers may remember that before then, the LGBT movement and American media were focused on emotional stories about homosexual unions and “marriage equality” as opposed to drag queens and transgenderism.)

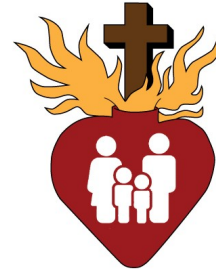

“With every passing year, more and more, for-profit America ... gets on board, to the point now where in 2023, ‘pride month’ is like Christmas. It’s just a forgone conclusion that it’s going to happen,” he added.

“Humility Month” offers Christians an alternative to the modern celebration of homosexuality, transgenderism, and sexual deviancy that now dominates the first month of summer. Church encourages people to put “Celebrate Humility Month” signs in their yards, display “Humility Month” stickers on their car windows, pray the Litany of Humility, and read Humility of Heart by Father Cajetan Mary da Bergamo.

The “Humility Month” initiative comes as the Los Angeles Dodgers re-issued, after briefly rescinding, an invitation to an openly anti-Catholic group of drag queens, the “Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence.” The baseball team said it will ask the sacrilegious group “to take their place on the field at our 10th annual LGBTQ+ Pride Night on June 16th.”

June 16 is the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Catholic liturgical calendar this year.

“We can start treating [June] as the regal, royal month of Our Lord and His social kingship that it is,” said the radio host. The feasts of the Sacred Heart and Corpus Christi should be treated as the significant holidays they are. Public prayer and processions, especially for the feast of Corpus Christi, are particularly important. “Pride” parades can be countered with peaceful, calm rosaries of reparation.

“Reparations have to be made all during the month for all of these abominations” against God and the Sacred Heart, said Mr. Church. “Be peaceful, be respectful, be reverent,” and practice “spiritual situational awareness.”

“Always proceed as you’re representing Our Lord here ... the main thing is, I would say, act Christian. Follow the golden rule,” he advised.

And learn the rosary prayers and the St. Michael prayer in Latin. “I hear from a good friend that the devil hates Latin.”
