Readings | Mass Intentions

Today's Readings

First Reading: "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." (2 Kgs 4:9-10)

Psalm: Forever I'll sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Second Reading: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. (Rom 6:3-4)

Gospel: "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

Selfless Living

"Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." Matthew 10:37-39

Clearly, this saying is a play on words that is meant to make you pause and think. It's almost like a holy and sacred riddle, spoken by Jesus to get your attention and to communicate a very deep and foundational truth about how you are to live. Essentially, this saying teaches that those who live in a selfish, self-centered way do not accomplish their goal. The goal of those who are selfish is to elevate themselves with the thinking that this is what is best for them. But Jesus clearly points out that when you live selfishly, seeking to put yourself above others, you lose what is most important in life. You lose your very soul. On the contrary, if you live selflessly, putting others before you, it is in this act that you actually find your true purpose in life and fulfill yourself on the deepest level.

Think, for example, of Jesus. He is God, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, existing for eternity in perfect union with the Father and the Holy Spirit. His soul radiates pure love. And for that reason, He chose to become human, suffer greatly and be killed. Was that fulfilling to our Lord? Most certainly. Why? Because His sacrifice went to the heart of Who He is. He is Love itself. And love is always self-giving. It is always fulfilling. It always seeks the good of the other. Love fulfills the lover when it is pure, holy, selfless and total. Jesus' sacrificial death on the Cross not only redeemed us, but it also manifested the Son of God's own perfect fulfillment and satisfaction in His human nature because His death was an act of pure love.

Sin confuses us. Selfishness especially clouds our thinking. As a result, it becomes difficult to clearly see that the way to fulfillment in life is by the complete and unwavering sacrifice of our lives given to others, in imitation of and in union with Jesus' perfect sacrifice. The moment that sin leads us to think first about ourselves, we begin to become blind to who we are and what makes us truly fulfilled.

Reflect, today, upon the divine mission you have been given to lose yourself for the sake of Christ, which is for the sake of true love. By loving God and others in this pure way, selflessly, you become who you are and who you were created to be. You find yourself only by choosing to lose yourself in this world. Ponder this deep mystery and believe it. Once you do believe it, commit to live sacrificially, casting aside every doubt, so that you will never hesitate to love everyone sacrificially. For in that radical act of selfless love, you will discover and become who you were created to be. <https://mycatholic.life>

Have a great week,
Fr. Joe Zabinski

*My sacrificial Lord, You are not only the perfect model of human love, Your sacrificial love is the source of human fulfillment itself.
Please give me the grace I need to love all people in a perfect and selfless way and, in that act, also discover and become who I was made to be.
Jesus, I trust in You!*

A Call to Fall on our Knees in Prayer for our Nation

Sunday, July 2 after the 10am Mass

Join us for the CALL2FALL in Prayer

Everyday we wrestle with important public policy issues that are redefining morals, marriage and family, religious freedoms and who we are as a nation. These are symptoms of the spiritual condition of our nation.

Churches are being asked to fall on their knees in prayer on Sunday, July 2. As we celebrate Independence Day, we are asked to express our dependence on God.

Please join us in saying a rosary and a prayer for our country following the 10:00am Mass on Sunday July 2 at St. Alberts. If you can not join us, please take a few minutes to say an extra prayer that day.

We thank you for the many ways that you pour out your grace into our lives each day.

We ask for your protection for our Totus Tuus team, for our children and youth, and for all those who will give of themselves at our parish.

Through this great work, may all who participate grow in their relationship with You.
