Scripture Reflection

Reconciling with One Another

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? Do you know who I'm talking about? That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who... (fill in the blank). On this front there are two lively options in our culture: talk about the person to others or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times, they are not.

— Father John Muir

You're invited.

ALPHA FALL COURSE BEGINS SEPTEMBER 21, 2023

Alpha gives everyone the opportunity to explore the meaning of life in a relaxed, friendly setting. The Alpha course meets once a week for 11 weeks exploring the basics of the Christian faith. Each Alpha session begins with a meal, followed by a short engaging video presentation, and time to discuss the topic. (Think warm, welcoming dinner party!)

During the discussion, everyone is welcome to contribute their opinions and no question is off-limits. Questions include

~ Is there a God? ~ Why am I here?
 ~ Where did I come from? ~ Where am I going?

Alpha is a safe and welcoming place to build a deeper foundation in faith, ask the deep questions about life, and build a better relationship with Jesus. Alpha is for everyone – no question is out of bounds and you are free to discuss as much or a little as you wish.

Mark your calendar now!

Alpha begins September 21 from 6:00-8:00pm.

This merits repeating – Alpha is for EVERYONE (Ages 18-118)! And consider inviting a family member, a friend, or co-worker that you would like to introduce to Jesus Christ.

Who will you invite?

For more information contact Jean at jwold@churchofstalbert.org

One less question for Siri.
Try Alpha

#TryAlpha

Reflect, today, upon how humble you are when someone expresses concern to you about your sin. How do you react? Do you find yourself getting angry and defensive when this happens? If so, be honest and admit to yourself that this is pride; this is your sin. Spend time trying to reflect upon the ideal and humble way you should respond when confronted by another. If reconciliation is your number-one priority in any relationship that has experienced hurt, then that holy and humble desire will become your guide to being able to reconcile with everyone in your life.

Most merciful Lord, You came to earth to reconcile us to You and to one another. Please show me my sin and give me the humility I need to see it so that I can repent and turn back to You. Help me to also be open to the many ways that You reveal my sin to me, especially through the mediation of others in my life. Jesus, I trust in You!

2023 Catholic Services Appeal Foundation

For the Love of Christ Impels Us...

The Catholic Service Appeal asks each household of our parish to make a pledge to the many ministries CSAF provides for. All parishioners are asked to complete and mail their pledge or donation envelope in order for us to reach our goal which is $26,651.76. We are currently only at 66% of our goal. In order for St. Albert's to complete the appeal and to receive back the amount due to our parish we need to reach 100% of our goal! Please respond if you haven't already!

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS

News concerning St. Alberts and the Archdiocese!

Archbishop Bernard Hebda is currently leading a movement within the parishes to build small groups. In the earliest days of the Church, small groups were an entry point for many that did not know about the church and religion as a whole, but they also kept the faith alive in the community by fostering fellowship between parishioners.

Since January, thirteen of your fellow parishioners have been meeting regularly to put in the groundwork to prepare for these new small groups:

We are currently collecting and compiling a list of parishioners who are interested in becoming Small Group Leaders and are willing to discern their involvement in Small Group Leader Formation, a FREE seven-week series will be held each Tuesday from September 19 to November 7 (excluding Halloween) from 7:00-9:00pm right here at our parish, facilitated virtually by Bishop Joseph Williams. The thirteen SET members will be attending these sessions as well.

Contact Jack at jacksilvermail@gmail.com to learn more or to register. This formation is intended for those who are open to the possibility of playing a leadership role in a small group.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Synod evangelization process can read the Pastoral Letter, "You Will Be My Witnesses," www.archspm.org/synodletter from the Archbishop.
