Inspirational Reflection

A few years back, I felt as if I couldn't hear God's voice the way I used to. The words in the Bible seemed like cold ink on a page. Prayer felt like sitting anxiously in a lonely room. I was worried — how could I, a priest, preach or help others if I couldn't hear God's voice? It went on for months.

Then a friend encouraged me to go on a retreat and spend as much time as possible in silence. After a day or two of quiet prayer, I noticed gentle but clear thoughts of repentance in two specific areas of my life. I asked God for the grace to change, and I went to confession. Suddenly, the divine silence that haunted me was filled with a sense of God's closeness and goodness. I realized, gratefully, that God had been speaking to me in the quiet voice of my conscience.

This week we hear Jesus say, "My sheep hear my voice. I know them and they follow me" (John 10:27). Jesus links the hearing of his voice to following him. He speaks to us in our conscience in an intimate, personal way, when we most need to hear him. When you feel deaf to God's voice, perhaps it is time to listen in silence for His voice in your conscience calling you to hear and follow the Good Shepherd of your soul. — Fr John Muir ©LPi

Happy Mother's Day!

Today, we honor and celebrate the beautiful gift of mothers—those who have nurtured, guided, prayed, and loved us unconditionally. Whether biological, adoptive, spiritual, or mother-figures, your presence reflects the heart of God's love. Proverbs 31:28 says, "Her children arise and call her blessed." May God bless all mothers today and always for the strength, wisdom, and compassion you so freely give. Thank you for being a blessing to our parish and our lives!

In honor of Mother's day, The Crow River MCCL Chapter will be handing out long stemmed carnations after Mass. A free will donation will be accepted.

Readings | Mass Intentions

First Reading: The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. (Acts 13:48-49)

Psalms: We are his people, the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)

Second Reading: "For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." (Rv 7:17)

Vocations

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

In 1963, Pope Paul VI designated Good Shepherd Sunday as World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The Church invites us to honor the vocation of all Christians given at baptism. May we who have dedicated our lives to God through the vocation of marriage, priesthood, diaconate, consecrated life and the single life remain faithful to our commitments. May those who are discerning their vocation listen to the grace of God to guide them. So let us pray for vocations in our Church. We need committed men and women who believe that their call to single, married, ordained or consecrated life is from God. We need to support each response of vocation and make sure each kind of vocation is an encouraged and viable option for our children.

*Loving God, we ask you to guide the men and women of this Archdiocese who are considering religious life and those already on their journey towards ordination or final vows. Bless them in their decisions. Strengthen them in their love for you and their desire to serve you in this special way. Hold them close to your heart, especially during difficult or troubled times.
