FROM FR. LEO

Our gospel echoes last weeks gospel. So as not to repeat myself, I thought I would do a short tutorial on the Sacrament of Baptism. Baptism is the first of the three sacraments of initiation along with Eucharist and Confirmation. Baptism initiates us into a community of faith that is centered around Christ and his Paschal Mystery making his death and resurrection becomes our own.

Let's look at the symbols of the sacrament and how they are used. First we use the sign of the cross many times as it is the symbol of the life and death of Christ. We trace the cross on the candidates forehead claiming them for Christ.

The second symbol is water. Chosen because it is the best symbol for life and death. We are 90 some percent water. Without it we die. Water can also be deadly. So when we immerse the candidate into the water, the tomb of Christ, they share in Christ's death so they may also share in his resurrection rising out of the water. Blessing ourselves in the font as we enter church is a renewal of our baptismal grace.

Oils are also used. Oils were used for healing in Jesus' time. Even today we have salves used in healing. So the oil of the catechumen is used to strengthen and heal the soul in the process of coming into the Church. This is done just below the neck.

This oil is blessed by the bishop on Holy Thursday as is the oil of Holy Chrism. Holy Chrism has a wonderful aroma from the chrism added to the oil which is also used to ordain and confirm. We anoint the candidate on the crown of the head to note that we share in Christ's role as priest, prophet and king.

A white garment is put on the child to symbolize the forgiveness of sin and the purity of a soul after baptism. Then a baptismal candle is lit from the Paschal candle, blessed at Easter. It is given to the parents and godparents to be kept burning brightly. At confirmation we hear the candidates profess their yes to their baptisms as they pray for the manifestations of the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
