Dear family of St. Thomas Aquinas,

“From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks”. These are important words in the last line of this Sunday’s Gospel. We must always protect our hearts from evil and allow the Holy Spirit to form our hearts as disciples of Christ. The way our heart is formed will determine how we behave and act, especially in challenging situations. A person whose heart is formed in the way of Christ and his Gospel will act and respond accordingly and will be a witness to the Gospel message.

What is the Lord calling you to do or change in your life today so that your heart can be formed after the heart of Christ?

Have a Blessed Week!
Your Servant in Christ,
Fr. Derek

Our Catholic Appeal: I want to thank so many of you who have responded very generously to the Our Catholic Appeal, the annual appeal which supports various ministries of our Diocese. If you have not already done so, I humbly request you to make a pledge or donation very soon so that we can reach our goal before the end of May. If every family makes a gift, we will reach our goal very soon.

A letter from the Desk of the Pastor

*Fr. Derek
Saldanha*

Querida familia de Santo Tomas de Aquino,

“La boca habla de lo que está lleno el corazón”. Estas son palabras importantes en la última línea del Evangelio de este domingo. Siempre debemos proteger nuestros corazones del mal y permitir que el Espíritu Santo forme nuestros corazones como discípulos de Cristo. La forma en que se forma nuestro corazón determinará cómo nos comportamos y actuamos, especialmente en situaciones difíciles. Una persona cuyo corazón está formado en el camino de Cristo y su Evangelio actuará y responderá en consecuencia, y será un testigo del mensaje del Evangelio.

¿Qué es lo que el Señor te está llamando a hacer o cambiar en tu vida hoy para que tu corazón pueda ser formado conforme al corazón de Cristo?

¡Que tengan una bendecida semana!
Su servidor en Cristo,
Padre Derek

Nuestro Llamado Católico: Quiero agradecer a muchos de ustedes que han respondido con generosidad a la Nuestro Llamado Católico, la apelación anual que apoya diversos ministerios de nuestra Diócesis. Si aún no lo han hecho, humildemente les pido que realicen una promesa o donación muy pronto para que podamos alcanzar nuestra meta antes de finales de mayo. Si cada familia hace una contribución, alcanzaremos nuestra meta muy pronto.

St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic School

Our school recently celebrated Literacy Week, and it was an unforgettable experience filled with exciting activities that brought the joy of reading to life! Students from different grades teamed up as Reading Buddies, sharing stories and building connections through books. At the Mobile Book Fair, every child had the opportunity to take home a free book, fostering a love for reading beyond the classroom. Parents joined in on the fun as Mystery Readers, making surprise visits to classrooms to read aloud and inspire young minds. Students also embarked on Literacy Scavenger Hunts, exploring the school while searching for phonics patterns and vocabulary words. One of the most creative highlights of the week was the Vocabulary Parade, where K-5 students wore hats that visually represented the definition of a word. It was truly a fantastic week of learning, laughter, and literacy! A heartfelt thank you to all the teachers, parents, and students who made it such a special and memorable celebration.
