A COMMUNION OF SELF-GIVING LOVE

First Reading ; Proverbs 8: 22-31

“When the Lord established the heavens I was there,/ when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;...

Second reading Rom:5:1-5

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

Gospel: John 16: 12-15

“I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

In today's Gospel reading, we are given a unique and intimate look into the very heart of the Blessed Trinity. As Jesus describes the relationship between himself, his Father, and the Holy Spirit, one central point emerges: God's very life is one of communion. The Trinity is a relationship of giving and receiving, a communion of life and love. God exists as a relationship of Persons. This reality brings us to a very important question: What does the Trinity mean for us, as we live our lives? The communion of Persons of the Holy Trinity reminds us of the importance of relationships in our world, and at the same time provides the model for what these relationships are supposed to look like. When the Scriptures say we are made in the image and likeness of God, it means we were made to live like the Trinity. We are made for communion, for relationship, with God and the people God has placed in our lives. God wants us to model and witness to him as Trinity, which means we are made to love as he loved. We are to give ourselves totally in relationship with him and with others. Only when we live in self-giving love, like God himself, will we find our fulfillment in life.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH :

“Now God's Spirit, who reveals God, makes known to us Christ, his Word, his living Utterance, but the Spirit does not speak of himself. The Spirit who 'has spoken through the prophets' makes us hear the Father's Word, but we do not hear the Spirit himself. We know him only in the movement by which he reveals the Word to us and disposes us to welcome him in faith. The Spirit of truth who 'unveils' Christ to us 'will not speak on his own (John 16:14).' Such properly divine self-effacement explains why 'the world cannot receive [him], because it neither sees him nor knows him,' while those who believe in Christ know the Spirit because he dwells with them (John 14:17).” —CCC 687

Food Pantry

Let us share with those who are in need. You can bring the unperishable food items and leave them in the basket in both our churches which will be shared with our fellow brothers and sisters who needs our support.

Let us not do something extra-ordinary but let us do something in an extra-ordinary way. This is one way we can practice charity among all other things we do. Let us support others by what we can...

The weather is so beautiful these days and how grateful it would be to start our day with Lord. We gather in our church during weekdays to celebrate Holy Eucharist to praise God and to thank Him for all the blessings and grow in communion with Him.

Please refer the weekday mass timings and follow them. Come home (Holy Cross Church) and to-

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ in breadth, Christ in length, Christ in height, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me. I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation. Salvation is of the Lord. Salvation is of the Lord. Salvation is of Christ. May Thy Salvation, O Lord, be ever with us. Amen. –St. Patrick
