Offering Announced Masses for 2023

The greatest gift that you can give to your dear ones who are living and who have gone before us is the Holy Mass. Let us offer Mass for living (birthday, Wedding Anniversary, special intention, Good Health, Healing...etc.) and dead, the blessings and grace of God, the Almighty be upon them.

Offering Mass for 2023 is open. Form is available at the table in the front of the Church.

Gratitude & Appreciation

Gratitude & Appreciation to all CCD Children & their parents and CCD teachers who had Bake Sale in our parish and collected $340. They have donated $ 200 to St. Jude institute & $ 140 to our parish. Appreciation to All.

Darkness cannot drive out darkness: only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate: only love can do that. – Martin Luther King Jr.

LITURGY OF WORD

First Reading: Is 49:3,5-6

Second Reading: 1 Cor: 1:1-3

Gospel Reading: Jn 1:29–34

In both the first and second readings, God calls individuals to His service entrusting them with a mission. The first reading is from the “Songs of the Suffering Servant” in Isaiah, where the prophet was chosen by God from his mother’s womb and consecrated to be a “light to the nations.” Here, aspects of Jesus’ own life, as sacrificial lamb, and mission, as salvation of the world, are foreshadowed. In the second reading, Paul reminds the Corinthian Christians that they, like all who call on the name of Jesus, are “sanctified and called to be holy.” They are called by God and consecrated in Christ Jesus for a life of holiness and service. As believers, we too have been called by God to become members of Christ’s Body by our Baptism, and we are consecrated in Christ Jesus for a life of holiness and service.

The Gospel passage presents three themes, namely, the witness John the Baptist bears to Jesus, the revelation (epiphany) and identification of Jesus as the “Lamb of God,” and the call to discipleship. John’s first declaration probably brought five pictures of the “lamb” to the minds of his Jewish listeners. 1) The Lamb of Yearly Atonement (Lv 16:20-22) used on Yom Kippur. 2) The Lamb of Daily Atonement (Ex 29:38-42; Nm 28:1-8). 3) The Paschal Lamb (Ex. 12:11ss). 4) The Lamb of the Prophets (Jer 11:19), (Is 53:7). 5) The Lamb of the Conquerors. (See the “gospel exegesis” for details).
